Dear Parishioners:

Advent is here! "Be watchful! Be alert!" as we are reminded in the Gospel this week. Advent is the season when we hear that wake-up call repeatedly. The master of the house, Jesus said, could come at any moment. Later, the first Christians expected the Second Coming of Jesus in their own lifetime, but as time passed they had to get used to a longer perspective.

The great mystic of the 14th Century, Julian of Norwich, prayed to God for a deeper longing for God. She longed to long more for God. She called it a wound, "the wound of longing."

Our world no longer struggles with this idea. On the contrary we look for complete fulfilment through our own work and pleasure. We expect nothing to happen. Many now expect nothing really from their religion, and some even see it as an obstacle to life.

Of course, the myth of the secular mind is to think that pleasing only oneself doesn't close the mind. Yet we know that nothing closes it more effectively. Let us pray we may feel some opening of the "wound of longing" in this Advent season.

We need to be reminded again to look up from our frenzied lives, to wake up from our slumber, and to awaken our spirit to the Master, who can come at any moment. Let us truly prepare the way of the Messiah this Advent with more intense prayer, a renewed relationship with the Lord, our faithful attendance at Mass and frequent Sacramental Confession of our sins. Let us truly long for the Divine Messiah to come and make room for Him in our lives!

I recently received some great news. You may remember a couple of years ago that Father Mark Spalding of Louisville led our parish on the Annual Lenten Mission. On November 21st, the Feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Pope Francis named Father Spalding as the 12th Bishop of Nashville, Tennessee.

He and I studied together for the priesthood at the American College in Belgium and have remained good friends these many years. He is to be ordained a Bishop on February 2, 2018, on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Please pray for Bishop-elect Spalding.

I also heard good news from Fr. Connors last week. He is coming home for Christmas on December 15th. It will be good to have him back with us at OLM through the holidays. He is working hard on his doctoral dissertation and expects to defend it in early June 2018. So be sure to welcome him home when you see him around the parish.

On this Friday, December 8th, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a Holy Day of Obligation for Catholics and so there will be four Masses celebrated. A 5pm Vigil Mass on Thursday and 3 Masses on Friday at 7:30am, 9:00am and 7:00pm. There are certainly ample opportunities for us to fulfill our obligation and attend Mass on the Holy Day.

In 1854, Pope Pius IX

solemnly proclaimed the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In the declaration of this dogma he stated: "The most Blessed Virgin Mary, in the first instant of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege granted by almighty God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the savior of the human race, was preserved free from all stain of original sin."

It took many years for this important doctrine to develop. While many Fathers and Doctors of the Church considered Mary the greatest and holiest of the saints, they often had difficulty in seeing Mary as sinless—either at her conception or throughout her life.

The teaching indicates that Mary's Immaculate Conception enhances Jesus' redemptive work. Other members of the human race are cleansed from original sin after birth. In the Virgin Mary, Jesus' work was so powerful as to prevent original sin at the outset.

I am away this week attending the annual meeting of the National Association of State Catholic Conference Directors in Washington, DC and I return Sunday night. See you at Mass on the Holy Day! Our Lady is the patroness of our parish and our nation, so come celebrate her special feast!

Advent is here! Prepare the way for the Messiah! Do good. Be well. God Bless! Go Pats!!!

What is the symbolism surrounding Advent?

Last weekend we celebrated the solemnity of Christ the King of the universe. It marked the end of the liturgical year. We journeyed with Our Lord from his birth through his ministry, passion, death, resurrection, and into the growth of the Church and the spread of the Gospel to all the nations. Now we enter the season of Advent with all its many symbols and meanings.

I am sure that everywhere we go we see and hear Christmas greetings, themes and music. These are wonderful things but poorly timed (and we miss out on the many beautiful and meaningful Advent hymns such as Lo, How a Rose, Creator of the Stars of Night, etc.). Unfortunately the culture does not understand the importance of the season of Advent and so when Christmas arrives we do not experience it properly. Many people have said to me that they enjoy Thanksgiving more than Christmas. This tells me that there is something fundamentally wrong about how we go about preparing for Christmas today. Lex orandi, lex credendi; how we pray is what we believe; how we spend the month of December will affect how we celebrate Christmas day.

The essential meaning of the season may be encapsulated by the terms anticipation or waiting. We anticipate the coming of the Messiah, the Lord, the return of the King. The term “advent” means “coming” and involves four weeks of preparation. We await two comings of Christ: (1) His Second Coming when he will judge the living and the dead at the end of time, (2) and we relive the period before Christ coming in the flesh in Bethlehem 2000 years ago. Before Christ the world was in darkness, enslaved to the forces of sin and death.

The color of the season is purple like the season of Lent, albeit the purple of Advent is darker and has more of a blueish hue to it. St. John the Baptist gives us a reason for the color purple when he quotes Isaiah: “A voice of one crying out in the desert: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.’” Our paths are prepared and made straight by acts of repentance and conversion. Hence, similar to Lent, the season of Advent is meant to be a season of repentance and conversion to prepare for the coming of the Lord.

Living in the northern hemisphere the days get shorter while the darkness gets longer. The Advent wreath helps us to symbolically experience the darkness of the world without Christ. As we light the individual candle with each passing Sunday the darkness retreats because the light of the world is coming.

1st Sunday of Advent

Today is the First Sunday of Advent, the first day of the new liturgical year.

Advent, which always begins on the Sunday closest to November 30, dates back to the fourth century.

It is a four-week period of devout and joyful preparation for the celebration of Christmas and for Christ's second coming at the end of time.

Early in Advent, the liturgy focuses our attention on the second coming. After December 16, it shifts our attention to the events surrounding the nativity.

Saint Jude Prayer for Advent Preparation

Lord Jesus, your power is infinite, your glory, everlasting. Quietly you come, as a tiny baby. Ready my heart for the miracle of your birth.

Bring light to this dark world, waiting silently for your warmth in the coldness of the night. Waiting is itself your gift, animating my heart with anticipation.

Bless me with needed patience and faithful discipline to prayerfully prepare to welcome and greet you. St. Jude, eternal hope, let your holiness flow into me.

May Christmas joy and burning love take root in me and grow until they bloom on Christmas Day, to carry joy to the world and inspire hope to renew the face of the earth. Amen.
