HOLY WEEK

Dear Parishioners:

On Palm Sunday, we commemorate Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem before his crucifixion. During Palm Sunday Mass, the Gospel account of the Passion of Christ is proclaimed. It is truly a solemn beginning to the holiest week of the year.

Holy Week is an opportunity to enter more fully in the sacred mysteries of our faith and celebrate them as a parish family. I hope you can make the time this week to attend Mass, get to Confession if you need to go, and join us for the solemn liturgies of the Sacred Triduum that are Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. Also, I encourage you to attend the Living Stations of the Cross that our OLM School children have been working so hard preparing. They are offered on Wednesday at 1:00PM and 6:30PM.

On Holy Thursday we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7:00PM. On the night before Jesus Christ was crucified, he changed bread and wine into his own Body and Blood, and he commanded the Apostles and their successors through the centuries to act in his stead and re-present this sacrifice.

Just as Christ did for his 12 Apostles at the Last Supper and as he commanded them to do likewise, during the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the priests who represent Christ ceremoniously washes the feet of 12 people from the parish.

After the Last Supper, Jesus went to pray in the Garden of Gethsemane, accompanied by two of the disciples. So after the Holy Thursday Mass, the remaining sacred hosts are carried out of the sanctuary to an "altar of repose." People are asked to stay for a time, adoring the wondrous sacrament that Jesus instituted that day 2,000 years ago. The Church remains open until Midnight for adoration.

The Mass of the Lord's Supper finished, the church is now truly empty. So the sanctuary lamp is extinguished and the tabernacle door left open, exposing the vacant space inside. The altar is stripped bare of its linens and candles, Holy water is removed from the church's fonts and the sacraments are not celebrated until the Easter Vigil. Like the first Christians bereft of Jesus and mourning the two days after the crucifixion, the church stands unadorned until the Easter Vigil.

At 3:00PM on Good Friday we offer the Stations of the Cross. This devotion is centered on the Passion of Christ and recalls the way of Jesus' suffering and death. At 7:00PM on Good Friday, the church gathers for the Liturgy of the Lord's Passion, which includes a reading of a Gospel account of the Passion, Holy Communion (consecrated at Mass on Thursday night) and veneration of the Cross. The faithful process to the cross at the foot of the sanctuary, as if to receive communion. There each person reverences the crucifix with a kiss or a bow.

On Holy Saturday, we will celebrate the Mother of all Vigils, the Easter Vigil at 8:00PM. There is no 5:00PM Mass as the Church requires the Easter Vigil to be celebrated after sunset in the darkness. We keep watch for the expectant rising of Our Saviour. This was the day He went down into the netherworld in order to bring back up with Him into heaven those who had died before His coming.

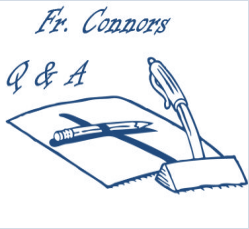

The Easter Vigil Mass is a solemn, glorious and joyful celebration. We celebrate the Lord's resurrection from the dead and at the Mass our candidates who have spent months of preparation are received through Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation into the Catholic Church for the first time. If you've never been to the Easter Vigil, consider attending this year as it is well worth the time and effort. On Easter Sunday we offer three Masses at 7:30AM, 9:00AM and 10:30AM, there will no 5:00PM Evening Mass on Easter Sunday.

Those who enter into Holy Week wholeheartedly discover that it can change them forever. It is a time to clear our schedules of unnecessary activities. Our minds and hearts should be fixed on Jesus and His Passion, Death and Resurrection!

If you are traveling for Easter, please know of our prayers for you and your families. A Blessed Holy Week to all. God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: What's the difference between the Baptism of our Lord and our own Baptism? Are they the same thing?

That's a good question. Christ's baptism is the beginning of His public ministry—a revelation of who He is. The baptism of the Lord is part of the manifestation of who He is. Liturgically, the Baptism of the Lord is connected to the epiphany and the wedding feast at Cana. These three events are manifestations of who Jesus is.

At His baptism, the Trinity itself is made manifest as the Father's voice is heard from Heaven and the Holy Spirit descends in the form of a dove. In His baptism, Jesus is understood to sanctify the waters of the world, making them ready for the Sacramental baptisms that will follow.

The baptism of Jesus is certainly different than ours. It is not a Sacrament as Jesus has no sin that needs cleansing. Our baptism initiates one into the Christian life, infusing into the soul the theological and moral virtues, the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and the indwelling of God Himself. Our baptism makes one an adopted son or daughter of God—a brother or sister of Jesus. The Lord, of course, is the Son of God by nature. His baptism doesn't make Him that.

In the baptism of Jesus, the Lord submits to the baptism of John the Baptist, which itself is not a sacrament, but a baptism of repentance. The baptism of Jesus symbolizes His immersion with sinners. He truly takes on our sin, entering into solidarity with our sinful state. The baptism of the Lord marks a kind of beginning of our salvation, with Jesus uniting Himself with sinners. His baptism anticipates the Cross as He joins Himself with sinners accepts the path that will lead to our salvation.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
