Dear Parishioners:

It seems like spring has finally sprung! Warmer weather and the long awaited sunshine have arrived. The plants and flowers around the parish grounds are flowering. In the next weeks we hope to remove any that didn't fully survive the harsh winter.

Also, you have most likely noticed the sidewalks buckling up around the Church. We are waiting to see how they settle back during the warmer weather and then hope to fix them. They have been painted so you might see the raised sidewalks and cones placed where the walkway immediately in front of Church has slightly raised. So please be cautious when walking around the property.

Spring has indeed sprung and this Friday we have our most important fundraiser for Our Lady of Mercy School, the Spring Fling! This annual event raises critical funds for the operation of our school. Our tuition only partly funds the schools annual budget of $2.5 million. The Spring Fling is crucial to keeping the school financially secure and flourishing.

I sometimes encounter people who think that OLM School doesn't need any financial help since its located in "affluent" East Greenwich. However, that is a total myth. There are many families in our school who make great sacrifices to ensure their children a first-class Catholic Education at OLM School.

Annually we grant tuition assistance to families and last year it totaled $75,000. Our fundraising for the school is crucial for such assistance, and also to keep up with the rising cost of healthcare and utilities. It helps fund the proper maintenance and updating of the school. Our fine faculty do not receive large salaries, but have a great commitment to providing a first-class Catholic Education and willingly make great sacrifices to serve the school.

If you haven't had a chance to support the Spring Fling and would like to make a donation to the event in support of OLM School, please contact me this week. We need the entire OLM Parish Community to support the great success of our parish school. I thank all those who support our school so generously at the Spring Fling and throughout the year.

Recently I received notes of thanks from the many organizations and agencies that we have supported with funds from OLM Outreach. These include the House of Hope in Warwick which benefits from the OLM Food Pantry. We also sent $1,000 at Easter to both Mary House Soup Kitchen at St. Patrick's Church in Providence and McAuley House in Providence. We were able to make a donation of $3,000 to the Keep the Heat Fund run by the Diocese of Providence thanks to your generous support of the Outreach Collection.

Monthly our Outreach Office provides rental assistance, utility assistance and food assistance to the many needy families in our own community of East Greenwich. It is your loyal and generous support of our Outreach efforts that makes this possible. Thank you!

I also wish to thank the parishioners who have donated to the Catholic Charity Appeal. We are nearing our parish goal of $193,000 but need every parish family to pledge their support in order to reach that goal. We have asked every parish family to consider a gift of $250 pledged over time.

Thankfully 387 families have pledged thus far including many who have been very generous with their pledge. In order for the Appeal to succeed at OLM we need all 2,200 of our parish families to pledge their support and make a donation. All of the proceeds of the CCA go directly to funding the many good works of our Church throughout the state.

The Month of May arrives this week! Join us on Friday, May 1st for our First Friday OLM School Mass at 9:00AM and for Eucharistic Adoration throughout the day. The Month of May is busy with First Communion, Mother's Day, and graduations. It is a month dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary with Devotions every Monday of the month! They say that April showers bring May flowers! Enjoy the flowers! God Bless. Go Sox!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: What does the Church teach about organ transplantation?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains: "Organ transplants are in conformity with the moral law if the physical and psychological dangers and risks incurred by the donor are proportionate to the good sought for the recipient. Donation of organs after death is a noble and meritorious act and is to be encouraged as a manifestation of generous solidarity" (CCC 2296).

One key question is whether the would-be donor is living or dead. If a donor is dead then it is permissible to use the organs for transplant. The question of when in fact someone has died is an important one and not always easily discernable. Many believe that hasty declarations of so-called brain death are done precisely for the purpose of harvesting organs. One must in fact be dead—that is, the soul must have separated from the body which means a cessation of bodily integrity that is permanent and irreversible.

For a living donor, the transplant must not bring about a disabling mutilation. There is some dispute about what that involves. The crucial point, however, is you cannot kill yourself or so severely harm yourself through organ transplant even to help someone else.

The Catechism explains: "It is not morally acceptable if the donor or those who legitimately speak for him have not given their explicit consent. It is furthermore morally inadmissible directly to bring about the disabling mutilation or death of a human being, even in order to delay the death of other persons" (CCC 2296).

Organ transplantation is thus a permissible and in some cases noble endeavor. This is the case, however, only under the strictest of moral guidelines. Death or disabling mutilation cannot be caused by the transplant. Similarly, medical professionals should not hasten or declare death simply to harvest organs even to help another human being.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

Our Lady of Mercy Parish invites you to join our active Prayer Chain. The power of prayer is tremendous and many successful results have been reported back. Anyone wishing to join the Prayer Chain as a caller, or simply as one who prays, for others and their intentions, please call Mary Hart at 884-5629 or email at 2hart@cox.net. If you know someone in need of prayers due to illness, infirmity, surgery, hospitalization or any serious reason please call us!

Prayer for Vocations

O God our provident Father through your Son you revealed to us the mysteries of the Kingdom;
you will that all men and women be saved
and come to the knowledge of your Truth.
Send workers into your great harvest, grant that more men will serve your Church
as priests for the Diocese of Providence, that the Gospel may be preached to every creature and your people, strengthened by the word of life and the sacraments may advance in the way of salvation and love. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.
Amen.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
