Dear Parishioners:

We are grateful to Fr. Roy Shea from the Missionhurst Missionaries for sharing his experience in the missions with us last weekend. The Annual Mission Co-op enables us to spiritually and financially support the missions. It also reminds us that we are part of large and universal Church and that we are called to evangelize the world both near and far. Let us continue to pray for the many missionaries of our Church who bring the faith to the remotest and poorest places across the globe!

I hope you had a chance to say "Farewell" to our Summer Seminarian Eric Silva last weekend. We are grateful to Fr. Carl Fissette, Diocesan Vocation Director, for sending us a seminarian as part of the summer program of the Diocese. OLM is blessed to part of their formation for priesthood. We continue to pray for Eric and all our seminarians as they move forward in their preparation for priestly ordination.

I was blessed last week to attend a meeting of State Catholic Conference Directors. Nearly forty directors from across the country gathered together in Michigan to discuss legislative strategies, public policy initiatives, and Church teaching.

We had presentations from legal experts about threats to religious liberty. In particular how the Religious Freedom Restoration Act effects the Church nationally and locally.

We also examined some of the national legislative initiatives to address the growing problem of poverty in our nation. Presentations offered by the staff of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops and Catholic Charities USA were very helpful. We also received updates on the progress of immigration reform and criminal justice reform.

We were updated on the growing movement across the nation to legalize Physician Assisted Suicide. In fact, such a bill was introduced and received committee hearings at the RI General Assembly this past spring. Thankfully these bills were held for further study but the fight to ensure the dignity of the terminally ill and handicapped goes on here and across the United States.

Another topic discussed at the meeting was the recent revelation about Planned Parenthood's selling of body parts of aborted babies. This shocking news about such a depraved practice, by the nation's largest provider of abortion on demand, only reinforces our Church's commitment to call for the protection of innocent human life in our nation.

Bishop Tobin issued a statement about this tragic news last week, stating:

"If there was any doubt about the evil agenda of Planned Parenthood, that doubt has been dispelled by the recent video showing the sale of body parts of aborted babies. This disgusting and depraved practice should be condemned by everyone with a conscience, everyone committed to the defense of human life and dignity.

It is time for political leaders to renounce their association with Planned Parenthood. And once again I call upon the Rhode Island Congressional delegation to end the public funding of Planned Parenthood. Our taxes should not be used to end the life of children and then market their bodies."

As Catholics we must make our concerns known to our elected officials, both nationally and locally. If we are to turn the tide of the culture of death that continues to debase our nation we must not only pray but also act. So, I encourage you to pray for our nation and also to act in defense of human life.

I am reminded of the words of Pope Francis in his recent encyclical, Laudato Si. The Holy Father states:

"A sense of deep communion with the rest of nature cannot be real if our hearts lack tenderness, compassion and concern for our fellow human beings. It is clearly inconsistent to combat trafficking in endangered species while remaining completely indifferent to human trafficking, unconcerned about the poor, or undertaking to destroy another human being deemed unwanted."

Pray and act in defense of life! Be well. Do good. God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors:
 Why do the graves in Catholic cemeteries always face east?

The graves in most Catholic cemeteries are laid out such that the deceased faces east.

This is a Christian custom that is very ancient and, while not required, is deep in the Christian soul.

The simple answer is that the custom began to have bodies face the east in order to face the Lord for His return. The east has always been understood to be the place of Christ's return. The rising sun in the east is the cosmic symbol for the reign of God, the resurrection of Christ and His return in glory. Turning toward the east—as a symbol of our turning toward the Lord—for prayer is an ancient custom.

For example, most churches built in a certain era faced east, that is, the priest and people together would face east for the celebration of Mass. Before the liturgical reforms initiated at the Second Vatican Council Holy Mass was always celebrated with both priest and people facing east. The Latin phrase ad orientem—toward the east—describes this liturgical posture.

While this liturgical posture is less common today, it is important to note that it was never banned or actually even spoken about at the Second Vatican Council. Strictly speaking Mass is never celebrated “facing the people,” rather Mass is always celebrated toward the Lord or ad dominium whether the priest and people face the same direction or one other.

Graves facing east is a reminder that death is not the end. Our beloved dead await the resurrection of the body at the second coming of Christ. At that time the bodies of the blessed will be reunited to their souls in Heaven.

If you have a question about the Catholic Church or Catholic Teaching, please email questions to associatepastor@olmparish.org

Peter's Pence Collection Be a Witness of CHARITY

Annual Peter's Pence Collection at OLM
August 8/9, 2015

Next week our parish will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Join our Holy Father as a witness of charity to those who are suffering.

Embarking on the third year of his pontificate, Pope Francis continues to call each of us to be a witness of charity. "To love God and neighbor is not something abstract," he said, "but profoundly concrete: it means seeing in every person the face of the Lord to be served, to serve him concretely." Pope Francis shows through his actions what it means to serve our brothers and sisters and give them the love of Christ.

Let us follow his example of service so that all people might have the joy of receiving Jesus through our presence: "And you are, dear brothers and sisters, the face of Jesus." The Peter's Pence Collection unites us in solidarity with the Holy Father and his works of charity toward those who are suffering around the world.

Pope Francis reminds us that true power lies not in amassing possessions and resources for ourselves but in giving. "We must never forget that true power, at any level, is service, whose bright summit is upon the Cross . . . It means to enter into Jesus' logic, who bends down to wash the feet of the Apostles," he said. Your contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection join with the power of Christ and allow our Holy Father to support victims of war and natural disasters and all our brothers and sisters who face the greatest need. Join Pope Francis and be a witness of charity throughout the world. Please be generous in the Peter's Pence Collection.

Thank you for your generous support!

Do as I say AND as I do!
Pope Francis Teaches by Example

*"Who can say he is not a sinner?
Nobody. We all are."*
