Dear Parishioners:

It's back to school this week! Summer is over for our students, and teachers, as Wednesday is the first day of school. The summer vacation seemed to fly by but I am sure our school children, and perhaps even their parents, are ready for the return to the classroom!

When I was a school kid summer didn't end until Labor Day and school didn't begin until after the holiday. However, most school districts in our state including East Greenwich now begin school the week before Labor Day. So as school begins I ask for your prayers for our students, teachers and staff as they begin another academic year of learning.

Our parish school follows the East Greenwich Schools Calendar so we begin this Wednesday as well. Of course our dedicated teachers begin this Monday in preparation of the school year. We are most grateful for their service to our parish school and wish them the best this year. We also wish our new OLM Principal Scott Fuller all the best as he begins his first year of leadership of our great school.

We will officially mark the beginning of school with a Mass of the Holy Spirit on Friday, September 5th at 9:00AM. We will call forth the Holy Spirit to guide and direct our faculty and students this year and help them grow in faith, hope, charity and wisdom. Mr. Fuller will be officially installed as our new Principal at this Mass. We invite you to join us for this celebration for our parish community.

The OLM Maintenance Staff under the leadership of Mr. Paul Anderson have been working especially hard these last few weeks finishing up some of the renovations of the school. This includes installing the new security system for the school, refurbishing the main corridor and front hallway with new paint, new flooring and a new ceiling tiles as well general maintenance and painting of classrooms.

Also the crew from RISE, a part of the National Grid that provides free energy efficiency services, have been installing all new lighting in the school classrooms and corridors. This new lighting will work more efficiently and will likely save on our electricity costs for the school. The lighting and work of installation are free of charge.

We are presently looking into replacing the boilers for the Church and Rectory. They currently use heating oil and our oil bills during the winter months are very high, as you can imagine. Both boilers are old and not as efficient as they should be and we hope to replace them with natural gas boilers. The cost of natural gas is much less than oil and can provide great savings for our parish.

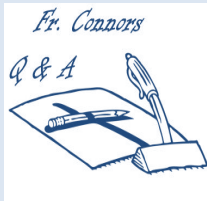

I wish to offer my deep thanks and gratitude to the many parishioners who were so generous in our Back-Pack Drive. On Monday we delivered over 100 back-packs full of school supplies to St. Patrick's Parish in Providence. Fr. James Ruggeri and his parishioners were overjoyed at the response to their call for help. We also gave nearly fifty back-packs filled with school supplies to some families in need here in East Greenwich. Your tremendous witness to charity is deeply appreciated and in the name of the needy, I offer my thanks.

Now that he has settled in after a year here, Fr. Connors is serving as the Chair of our Annual OLM Parish Picnic. On Sunday, September 21st it kickoffs our celebration for our Patronal Feast of Our Lady of Mercy which is on September 24th. We hope to have yet another year of good food, good fun and good times with parish family and friends. Sign-ups for volunteers to help with this great time is to take place in the coming weeks after Masses. So mark your calendar now for this great event in the life our parish and please pray for good weather!

Pope Francis was in South Korea last week where he beatified 124 martyrs at a Mass for Korean Youth. In his homily he said: "The martyrs challenge us to think about what, if anything, we ourselves would be willing to die for." A most challenging question for us who worship so freely and without fear in this time of violent and murderous persecution of many of our Christian brothers and sisters. Indeed, what would we die for?

Father Healey

Dear Father Connors: What is the difference between a divorce and an annulment?

So many questions in the Church concern her teaching about marriage. The reason for that is because Jesus is so clear in the Gospels about what marriage is and how it ought to be treated. While our culture has a very different view of marriage, the Gospel teaching could not be clearer.

A divorce is a civil arrangement in which married people civilly separate. A divorce however does not end a Sacramental marriage. The marriage between two baptized Christians cannot be broken even by the Pope himself. What God has joined man cannot separate.

An annulment is a different thing entirely. It is a declaration of the Church that what appeared to be a true marriage was in fact not actually a Sacramental marriage from the very beginning. One does not “get an annulment” as if it is something that can be obtained by anyone who seeks it. Instead, it follows an examination into the truth of the matter...was this a real marriage that God joined together or not?

The obvious example would be someone who lied during the courtship. In such a case, the couple, while civilly marriage would never have actually been sacramentally married. Because it is precisely the consent of the couple to be married that God uses to join them together, if there was something inadequate in their consent—again from the very beginning—then it is possible to declare that they were never actually joined in marriage.

A declaration of nullity or annulment is a formal declaration of the Church that what appeared to be an authentic marriage actually never was so from the beginning. It does not separate what God has joined but declares instead that God never joined the partners together in the first place.

These questions are very difficult to deal with in the abstract. One should always seek the counsel of a priest who can help with the situation more directly. It should go without saying that those who find themselves in difficult situations should not despair. They should examine what possibilities exist to have their situation rectified. The Church is there for them and urges them to be reconciled to the mercy of God.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

God of wisdom and might,
 we praise you for the wonder of our being,
 for mind, body and spirit.
 Be with our children as they begin a new school year.
 Bless them and their teachers and staff.
 Give them strength and grace as their bodies grow;
 wisdom and knowledge to their minds
 as they search for understanding;
 and peace and zeal to their hearts.
 Help them grow in love of God and neighbor.
 We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
 Amen.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
