HAPPY NEW

Dear Parishioners:

Merry Christmas! I hope you had a great Christmas with your family and friends. What a wonderful celebration, of the Nativity of the Lord, we had at Our Lady of Mercy. Our Church is so beautifully decorated, the music was so inspirational, the Masses full of faithful and joyful people.

We give thanks for so many who worked so hard in preparing for Christmas. Our great maintenance crew, led by Paul Anderson, did an outstanding job cleaning and setting up for Christmas! Our decorating team led by Cecilia Franzone has once again decorated our Church spectacularly beautiful! Our crack team of sacristans led by Nancy Wray prepared everything perfectly for Holy Mass.

Our Choirs and musicians led by Henri St. Louis and Deirdre Donovan provided inspirational sounds of the season! Our dedicated Altar Servers served with grace and reverence! Our readers proclaimed God's Word with hope and joy! Our ushers provided a warm welcome to the many coming for Christmas!

We give thanks to all of them and so many more who help in so many ways both large and small. Our celebration of the birth of Christ could not be so meaningful without all of their hard work and dedication. Thanks to the entire OLM Staff and our many volunteers for working tirelessly to ensure Christmas is beautiful and memorable, holy and happy, for the entire parish!

On behalf of Doug Green and the OLM Outreach Office, I thank the many parishioners who donated so much food, gifts, and gift cards for Christmas. We have been able to help many local families have a joyful Christmas thanks to your generosity. We also have been able to help the McAuley House and Emmanuel House for the Homeless, the children at Whitmarsh House, the hungry at the St. Patrick's Soup Kitchen and the Assumption Food Pantry. It is because of your generous support of the monthly OLM Outreach Collection that we are able to provide such bountiful charity to those most in need. In the name of the poor and needy, I thank you for your generous spirit and loving support.

Christmas week began with the blessing of the new nativity in Mercy Park. It was a great way to start a week of celebration in honor of the Christ Child. I hope you stop by and visit the crèche here in Church and the one in Mercy Park. They are truly beautiful and inspire prayer. I am grateful to Doug Green and Paul Anderson for designing and decorating the outdoor crèche.

I don't see many nativity scenes around town. However, I see lots of Santas, but not many Holy Families! Maybe our new crèche might inspire more people to place a nativity on their front lawn and proclaim the real beauty and truth of Christmas!

Now, as we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family, we are reminded of the importance of families and family life. Let us pray for all families especially those who experience loss, death, divorce, separation, crisis or serious problems. Saint John Paul II said this of this great feast: "May the Holy Family, who had to overcome many painful trials, watch over all the families in the world, especially those who are experiencing difficult situation."

We also get ready to welcome in the New Year as we say farewell to 2014! New Year's Day is a holy day of obligation for Catholics as we celebrate Mary, the Holy Mother of God. I hope you join us for Mass as there is no better way to start a New Year than by offering the greatest of all prayers, the Eucharist! The Mass Schedule includes a 4PM Vigil on New Year's Eve and Masses at 7:30AM and 10:30AM on New Year's Day.

In the name of Father Connors, Deacon Dowd and myself I offer our profound thanks to so many parishioners who gave such thoughtful and generous gifts, provided the Rectory with such delicious foods and fine spirits, and sent greeting cards and good wishes during Christmas. We are most grateful for your tremendous support and humbled by your loving acknowledgement of our ministry at Our Lady of Mercy. It is truly a blessing to serve such a faithful, hopeful, and joyful community as OLM. Merry Christmas and Blessings for 2015! Happy New Year! God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: Why is the family called the domestic church?

The domestic church is a popular way to refer to the family since the time of the Second Vatican Council in the 1960s. The Vatican II Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, Lumen Gentium, declares: "From the wedlock of Christians there comes the family, in which new citizens of human society are born, who by the grace of the Holy Spirit received in baptism are made children of God, thus perpetuating the people of God through the centuries. The family is, so to speak, the domestic church."

The work of the Church—which is to bring about new children of God—relies in large part on the family. Vatican II's Lumen Gentium continues: "In [the family] parents should, by their word and example, be the first preachers of the faith to their children; they should encourage them in the vocation which is proper to each of them, fostering with special care vocation to a sacred state."

The family is the place where children come to know God. They are educated in the faith, given doctrinal and moral instruction and taught prayers and Catholic customs. The Christian family reflects the very life of God who is a Trinity of persons in a relationship of self-giving love.

The family, founded on the union of a man and woman in marriage, is an image of Christ's faithful and fruitful love of His Church. The elements of the Church—passing on of the faith, imploring God's mercy through prayer and praise, and works of charity—are all present in the family. The family is the place where most people come to know God and His love, the Church and Her teachings, and experience what a community is faith is all about. It is thus rightly called the domestic church.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

Mary, Mother of God

January 1 is New Years Day in our secular life, but in our liturgical life, it is the solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God.

In the year 431, the Council of Ephesus declared that the Virgin Mary was Mother of God; in Greek, Theotokos, "God-bearer."

Mary was celebrated under this title on the first of January until about the eighth century when the day was changed to mark the circumcision of the Lord.

The reforms of the Vatican II returned the day to Mary, Mother of God but kept the Gospel reading which refers to Jesus' circumcision.

A Prayer of Consecration to the Holy Family

In your own life by your frequent meditation on the Holy Family you can extend their lessons further so that you imitate them more closely and love them more dearly. And you can offer them yourselves—your husband or wife, your children, your family—in your life consecrated to the Holy Family of Nazareth.

O Jesus, our most loving Redeemer, who having come to enlighten the world with Your teaching and example, willed to pass the greater part of Your life humbly and in subjection to Mary and Joseph in the poor home of Nazareth, thus sanctifying the Family that was to be an example for all Christian families, graciously take to Yourself our family as it dedicates and consecrates itself to You this day.

Defend us, guard us, and establish among us Your holy fear, true peace, and harmony in Christian love; in order that by conforming ourselves to the divine pattern of Your family all of us without exception may be able to attain to eternal happiness.

Mary, dear Mother of Jesus and our Mother, by your kindly intercession make this our humble offering acceptable in the sight of Jesus, and obtain for us His graces and blessings.

O Saint Joseph, most holy Guardian of Jesus and Mary, help us by your prayers in all our spiritual and temporal necessities; that so we may be enabled to praise our divine Savior Jesus, together with Mary and you for all eternity. Amen.

January 1st—New Year's Day World Day of Prayer for Peace

A Prayer for Peace

Lord Jesus Christ, who are called the Prince of Peace, who are yourself our peace and reconciliation, who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace. Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice, and brotherly love. Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace. Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace. May all peoples on the earth become as brothers and sisters. May longed-for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all. — Saint John Paul II.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
