5:00PM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy

Dear Parishioners:

Merry Christmas! Yes, the Christmas Season is just beginning! Christmas is a season full of joy, hope and faith not just a day. The Eternal Word has become Man and dwells among us. The longings of the patriarchs and prophets are fulfilled. With the shepherds we hurry to the manger and adore the Incarnate Son of God, who for us and for our salvation descended upon earth.

The purpose of Christmas is beautifully expressed in the Preface of the Nativity: "For in the mystery of the Word made Flesh a new light of your glory has shone upon the eyes of our mind, so that, as we recognize in him God made visible, we may be caught up through him in love of all things invisible."

Christmas at Our Lady of Mercy is always a joyful, faithful and hopeful celebration. We give thanks for the gift of God's only begotten Son, Jesus Christ born on Christmas day. We also give thanks to the many people who made Christmas so beautiful and solemn at OLM.

Let's give thanks and praise where it is due! The OLM Decorating Committee under the direction of Cecelia Franzone did a tremendous job of making our Church truly beautiful. Jeffery Allard and Deirdre Donovan along with our musicians, Adult and Children's Choirs gave us the great gift of wonderful music. Our fine Altar Servers ensured the great feast was celebrated with solemnity and reverence.

Our fine ushers did a great job of welcoming and ushering our many visitors! Our lectors proclaimed the readings with great joy and faith. Our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion helped many people receive the Body of Christ with reverence and respect. We thank them all!

In "The Joy of the Gospel," Pope Francis writes about a "practical relativism" in which we act, in our day to day life, like God doesn't really exist. He said that this can result in a heart that believes all the doctrine and teachings but "a lifestyle which leads to an attachment to financial security or to a desire for power or human glory at all cost."

The Holy Father calls us to say "No to selfishness and spiritual sloth." He talks about the dangers of "acedia," which is an emptiness or listlessness that results in not really caring about anything. He warns of a "gray pragmatism," transforming us into "mummies." He says: "Disillusioned with reality, with the Church and with themselves, they experience a constant temptation to cling to a faint melancholy, lacking in hope which seizes the heart."

Pope Francis asks us to say "no to a sterile pessimism." He says, "Our faith is challenged to discern how wine can come from water and how wheat can grow in the midst of weeds." He writes about a "defeatism" which can turn us into "disillusioned pessimists, 'sourpusses'" and urges us to say "yes to a new relationship with Jesus."

Christmas is the opportunity to open our hearts to Jesus' coming today, in the midst of our darkness and restore the light of peace, joy and hope. On the threshold of the New Year, "come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!" May we continue these Christmas days and throughout the New Year to celebrate the wonder and beauty of this holy season and may we continue to adore Him in all we say and do.

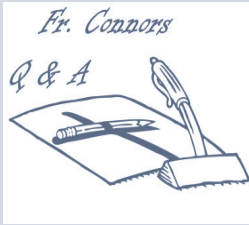

I offer my thanks to the Hill Funeral Home for donating the beautiful 2014 OLM Calendars to our parish. These calendars are a gift to each of you so please take one as you leave Church. If you know of a neighbor or family member who needs one, take one for them too! The calendars highlight all the important dates of our Church Year and provide easy contact information for the parish. We are grateful to the Carparco Family of Hill Funeral Home for their generous donation.

Fr. Connors and I wish to thank the many parishioners who were so kind to us at Christmas. The cards, best wishes and generous personal gifts are appreciated and we are grateful for your thoughtfulness. Your support and encouragement of our priestly ministry is truly appreciated. We wish you and your families a continued Merry Christmas and many blessings for the New Year in 2014! God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: What is the meaning of the feast of the holy family this week?

The feast of the Holy Family is a wonderful chance to reflect on the centrality of the family in God's plan of salvation. The holy family of Joseph, Mary and Jesus stands at the center of salvation history. They are the model of love and familial devotion.

The holy family is the model of prayer. The silence and contemplation of God's things which pervades the house at Nazareth should encourage our families to pray. The old adage certainly retains its merit: the family that prays together; stays together. How different would 2014 be if Catholic families once again took up the practice of family prayer? Would that every Catholic family pray together in the home. The tradition of the rosary, said together as a family, has been encouraged by Pope after Pope and saint after saint.

The foundation of the family is, of course, the marriage of a man and woman bonded together for life. This teaching of Christ—expounded by the Church—is not against anybody. It doesn't condemn anyone who falls short. What it does is propose the truth about marriage, a truth for the good of children and all society. In a word, love-making and life-making go together. Any effort to separate them is—as we have seen in our world—to our peril.

The Feast of the Holy Family—so close to Christmas—is a feast that celebrates the family. God wanted to be born in a family. He came to meet humanity first through a family. In doing so, He consecrated, as it were, the family as the first and most vital cell of evangelization. Might 2014 be the year that families rediscover or find for the first time the truth about friendship with Christ found in the Church. That will mean a happy 2014 and many new years to come.

Thank you for your generous support of our OLM Outreach efforts at Christmas!! Your generous charity helped many families and individuals truly have a Happy Christmas!

Dear Fr. Healey & Our Lady of Mercy Parish:

Christmas greetings and blessings to you, Bishop Evans, Fr. Connors, staff and all parishioners from Sister Lucy and Sister Rose. We cannot forget you and no doubt we miss all of you. May you enjoy the love, presence and peace which the Newborn Jesus brings to us this season and much more as we continue our journeys together toward Him forever. We Religious Teachers of St. Lucy Filippini remember you in prayer and likewise, we ask you to pray for us. We have many fond memories.

Faithfully in Christ,
Sister Rose and Sister Lucy

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parish:

Thank you so much for the donation to Oakland Beach School for the basic necessities of our students. In this time of economic cutbacks and difficult financial situations, donations such as yours are hugely appreciated. Our students and their parents will benefit greatly from your generous contributions. We all hope you have a wonderful Christmas season,

Paul Heatherton
Principal of Oakland Beach School

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parish:

On behalf of House of Hope CDC and the homeless individuals and families we serve, I want to thank you for your recent donation of food and for all your ongoing efforts to assist us. The support of our community, of people like you and your parishioners, ensures we can be a solution to ending homelessness. Your generosity restores hope for many men, women and children in our community.

Jean Johnson
Executive Director of House of Hope

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parish:

On behalf of all of us at McAuley Ministries, thank you for your generous donation. Gifts like this enable us to fulfill our mission of providing the basic needs of food, clothing, shelter, health services, emotional support and guidance to the most vulnerable in our community.

Donald P. Wolfe
Executive Director of McAuley Ministries

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parish:

Thank you for your generous donations of Christmas gifts for our clients at Emmanuel House. Your support of our many clients is appreciated and you've brought joy to many at Christmas. May God bless you all.

James Jahnz
Coordinator of Emmanuel House Homeless Shelter

of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

O most loving Jesus, Who by Thy sublime and beautiful virtues of humility, obedience, poverty, modesty, charity, patience and gentleness, and by the example of Thy domestic life, didst bless with peace and happiness the family Thou didst choose on earth, in Thy clemency look down upon this household, humbly prostrate before Thee and imploring Thy mercy. Remember that this family belongs to Thee; for to Thee we have in a special way dedicated and devoted ourselves. Look upon us in Thy loving kindness; preserve us from danger; give us help in time of need, and grant us the grace to persevere to the end in the imitation of Thy Holy Family; that having revered Thee and loved Thee faithfully on earth, we may bless and praise Thee eternally in heaven. O Mary, most sweet Mother, to thy intercession we have recourse, knowing that thy Divine Son will hear thy prayers. And do thou, O glorious Patriarch, St. Joseph, assist us by thy powerful mediation, and offer, by the hands of Mary, our prayers to Jesus. Amen.
