Dear Parishioners:

Advent is here! We don purple vestments and sing the ancient hymns as we call out: “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel!” We acknowledge that Christ is indeed with us and at the same time we await His glorious return.

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI in an Advent homily stated: “In Advent, Christians relive a dual impulse of the spirit: on the one hand, they raise their eyes towards the final destination of their pilgrimage through history, which is the glorious return of the Lord Jesus; on the other, remembering with emotion his birth in Bethlehem, they kneel before the Crib.”

Yes, Advent is here! Prepare the way for Christ to come! We can do that at OLM in many ways. First, by coming to Mass faithfully we deepen our relationship with the Eucharistic Lord. We can also cleanse our souls in Confession. It is truly a great way to prepare the way.

This week the Church across the globe begins the Jubilee Year of Mercy called forth by Pope Francis. It is a time for the Church to celebrate God’s mercy. The Year of Mercy begins on Tuesday, December 8th on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This Jubilee Year of Mercy concludes on the Feast of Christ the King in November 2016.

Pope Francis declared this year and called upon the entire Church to reflect on God’s mercy—His love for those who are suffering, those who are in need, and those who are afflicted by sin. He has called for a renewed commitment to God’s Mercy in the Sacrament of Penance. He has also asked that we gain a deeper understanding of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

On the Holyday, Tuesday, Bishop Tobin celebrates the 9AM OLM School Mass and inaugurates the Year of Mercy for the entire Church of Providence. We will also have the regular schedule of Holyday Masses with a 5PM Vigil on Monday and Holyday Masses at 7:30AM, 9AM and 7PM on Tuesday. I hope you make it to Mass for the Holyday, and if you can, I invite you to join with Bishop Tobin at the 9AM Mass.

It is a special time for our Church and for our Parish which is dedicated to Our Lady of Mercy. I hope and pray it may strengthen our commitment to the Works of Mercy as a Church and as a Parish. It is an opportunity to encourage Christians to meet people’s “real needs” with concrete assistance, to experience a “true pilgrimage” on foot, and to send “missionaries of mercy” to forgive even the most serious of sins.

Next Saturday following the 4PM Mass we gather as a parish for a Work of Mercy, “Feeding the Hungry.” We are to pack 20,000 meals for the hungry in Africa as part of the Catholic Relief Services Helping Hands initiative. Last year was our first time with this project and it was a sterling success.

I am grateful to Kathy Bennett for organizing it here at OLM. If you are interested in helping us and also having a fun and faith-filled evening please sign up. It is truly a great family event and open to every man, woman and child of any age in the parish. Help us take up the Year of Mercy by offering your helping hands to feed the hungry!

We have planned other Works of Mercy events throughout the upcoming year. Also, there is to be an All-Day Confession event across the entire state in March during the Lenten Season. Pope Francis has said: “This Jubilee Year, may the Church echo the Word of God that resounds strong and clear as a message and a sign of pardon, strength, aid, and love.”

Advent continues on and so should our preparation for the coming of Christ. As the Year of Mercy commences let us commit as individuals and as a parish family to making Mercy flourish in our community, our state and our nation. Let us seek out God’s mercy in Confession and let us put into action the Works of Mercy.

I am away this weekend at a meeting of the National Association of State Catholic Conference Directors in Washington, DC. I am grateful to Vocation Director Fr. Fisette for covering in my absence. See you at Mass on the Holyday. Be well. Do Good. God Bless. Go Pats!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: Can thoughts be sins or only actions?

This is an interesting question and an important one actually. Yes, the Christian moral life is concerned not simply with eternal actions but our whole being, thoughts, feelings, and actions.

We have to make a distinction between a fleeting thought that enters one's head and one that is really dwelt upon. Limited, if any, moral responsibility can be assigned to passing thoughts. We are responsible, however, for thoughts that are dwelt upon.

One thinks of the ninth and tenth commandments which forbid coveting a neighbor's wife and a neighbor's good respectively. These commandments forbid entertaining lustful thoughts as well as entertaining thoughts and feelings of greed and jealousy.

The point of Christian teaching speaking about interior acts, thoughts, and feelings is not to make the moral life difficult for us. Instead, it is to show the truth about human flourishing. Dwelling even in thought upon jealous or greedy intentions does not make for a flourishing human person. It makes one enslaved to negative thoughts and desires. The point of the Christian life is not make one simply behave externally in a certain way. Instead, it is truly to be transformed by Christ even on the inside by means of grace.

The virtues represent the high point of Christian moral living. The virtues offer a stable disposition and capacity for feeling and action which in the order of grace unites one to Christ. Radical transformation through the grace of Sacraments remains possible. The Christian moral life then describes the full flourishing of the individual in grace.
