PRAYER

FASTING

ALMSGIVING

Dear Parishioners:

The unexpected passing of U.S. Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia was sad news. Justice Scalia was a brilliant jurist and an important figure in the legal history of our nation. He was a husband, the father of nine children and the grandfather of twenty-eight grandchildren.

Justice Scalia was the first Italo-American to serve on the US Supreme Court. He was also a committed Catholic whose son is a priest of the Arlington, Virginia Diocese. He was just one of six Roman Catholic justices on the Supreme Court, but in his devotion to the faith he was second to none.

Many years ago I had the great privilege to hear him speak here in Providence to the Justinian Legal Society of Rhode Island. He possessed not only a keen intellect but a tremendous sense of humor and a sharp wit. Afterwards my father and I were able to speak with Justice Scalia for a few moments. We shared a good laugh when I told him that I was the ninth of nine children, a priest and also the son of a Judge. We offer our prayers and condolences to the family of Justice Scalia. May his noble soul rest in peace!

In his Annual Message for Lent, Pope Francis suggested: "For all of us, then, the season of Lent in this Jubilee Year is a favorable time to overcome our existential alienation by listening to God's word and by practicing the works of mercy.

In the corporal works of mercy we touch the flesh of Christ in our brothers and sisters who need to be fed, clothed, sheltered, visited; in the spiritual works of mercy – counsel, instruction, forgiveness, admonishment and prayer – we touch more directly our own sinfulness.

The corporal and spiritual works of mercy must never be separated. By touching the flesh of the crucified Jesus in the suffering, sinners can receive the gift of realizing that they too are poor and in need. "

One of the greatest ways the corporal works of mercy and the spiritual works of mercy are lived out is through the many good works done by our local Church. The various offices and agencies of the Diocese of Providence practice daily the works of mercy for the poor, the stranger, the ill, the imprisoned and the needy. Whether its at the Emmanuel House for the homeless, celebrating the sacraments for prisoners, tending the ill and infirmed in nursing homes, or helping resettle refugees & welcome immigrants, the many offices provide good works for all of God's children.

This is truly something we can be proud of as Catholics. Our Church is the second largest provider of social services in the nation behind only the government. Here in Rhode Island our Church is the largest Church provider of services to the poor and needy. In the name of Christ and the Catholic Church, each day hundreds are helped through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

Each year during Lent we are asked to give alms. Perhaps one of best ways we can do that is to support the Catholic Charity Appeal. This Appeal helps finance the good works of the Church across the state. It is only through the tremendous financial support of Catholics across Rhode Island that such good works can continue to serve God's people.

Next weekend we begin the Annual Catholic Charity Appeal at all Masses. We are asking each parish family to consider pledging a gift of $300. This means that for just $30 a month, the poor and needy, the imprisoned and forgotten, the sick and the infirm continue to be served. I ask that you prayerfully consider making this pledge next week. We are called to give alms not simply out of our surplus but sacrificially out of our love.

I am deeply grateful to Kevin and Nancy McDevitt who serve as the Chairs of the Catholic Charity Appeal here at OLM. Also, I thank Stephen and Antonia Zubiago who serve as the Chairs of the Bishop Partnership in Charity. Our parish goal this year is $193,864, an amount we have traditionally surpassed. I am sure we can do so again with your generosity and I thank you for your support of the CCA.

It's Lent! Remember Fridays are for fish and Stations! Pray. Fast. Give Alms. Be well. Do Good. God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: What are your thoughts about the meeting between Pope Francis and Russian Orthodox Patriarch Kirill?

On his way to Mexico last week Pope Francis made a stop in Cuba. Despite visiting there just five months ago, the Pontiff made a second—albeit only hours long—visit there on Thursday. He stopped in Havana to meet Patriarch Kirill, leader of the Russian Orthodox Church who was there for a visit.

This truly historic meeting—the first time ever a Pope has met with a Russian Patriarch—marks an important milestone in the thousand year rift between Catholicism and Orthodoxy.

While the Patriarch of Constantinople serves as the Ecumenical Patriarch and ostensible leader of Orthodoxy worldwide, Patriarch Kirill in fact has the majority of Orthodox adherents. Russian Orthodoxy is the second largest single Christian group in fact, after Catholicism.

The Orthodox—Greek, Russian, Coptic, and others—are our closest Christian partners. They celebrate all seven valid Sacraments and profess virtually the same Christian faith. Only a dispute about the extent to which the Pope can exercise his office keep the two churches from lacking full communion.

The decision of Pope Francis to make such an extraordinary visit—and of the Russian Patriarch to agree to such a meeting—demonstrates the importance of Catholic-Orthodox relations in our time. As the long joint declaration released after their meeting makes clear, many issues of mutual interest exist on the world stage. The slaughter of the Christians in the Middle East, the fate of Christians in the Ukraine, and the place of Russia on the world-stage are just some of the political and moral questions Francis and Kirill wanted to discuss.

Their meeting marks an important moment in the on-going quest for Christian unity in our time. The Pope of surprises certainly delivered this week with a truly history and important gesture for the unity of Christians throughout the world.

Catholic Charity Appeal

The Catholic Charity Appeal supports numerous ministries and programs of the Diocese of Providence which provide social, educational and spiritual support to thousands of Rhode Islanders each year regardless of race, creed or background. The ministries supported by the Fund range from social service ministries providing direct support to the poor, the hungry and homeless, to immigration and refugee services, and to emergency rent and medical aid. Additional services include prison ministry, and community advocacy for needs in the community.

2nd Sunday of Lent

This Sunday's liturgy focuses on faith and trust in God and gives us a kind of preview of Christ's resurrection in the Gospel reading of the transfiguration.

These themes form an excellent background for a special penitential rite or scrutiny that is celebrated today with already-baptized candidates who are preparing for reception into the church at Easter.

It is interesting to note that the transfiguration story is revisited on August 6 with its own feast and a very different liturgy focusing on triumph, praise, and exaltation.
