PRAYER

FASTING

ALMSGIVING

Dear Parishioners:

Last Sunday's "Blizzard" hit with a vengeance with freezing temperatures, whipping winds, and snow squalls. I was joyfully surprised to see so many made it to Mass on Sunday morning. However, as you can see from the budget results many parishioners were unable to make it to Mass. Please pray that this is the last we see of such snowy storms this year!

If the snow and cold is all that we must endure to practice our faith then we should indeed be grateful. For across the globe many of our brother and sister Christians face far worse with violent persecution simply because they are Christian. For them being a faithful Christian comes with a great cost, including their lives.

This fact was horrifically highlighted last week as ISIS terrorists executed 21 Coptic Christians from Egypt. These men were working in Libya as laborers and were killed because of their Christian Faith. The Pope condemned this murderous attack stating: "Their only words were: 'Jesus, help me!' They were killed simply because they were Christians."

Simply because they confessed their faith in Jesus Christ they were brutally beheaded. The savagery of the ISIS Terrorists knows no bounds and is becoming increasingly brutal. In their message to the world after killing these Christian men, they announced that "they will conquer Rome!" It is truly a frightening proposition in light of the recent attacks across Europe.

When so many of our brothers and sisters in the world face persecution and even death for practicing their faith, how blessed we are to be able to freely follow the Lord. We have ample opportunities to freely attend Mass weekly and daily, to confess our sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and to celebrate the devotions of the season unhindered.

These attacks upon Christians must cause us to never take our blessings and freedom to practice our faith for granted. On Ash Wednesday we confessed our Catholic Faith in a very bold and public manner, ashes upon our foreheads. This confession of faith isn't merely a onetime event, but must be a daily act as we follow Christ with greater conviction. We might offer our penance and sacrificial acts for an end to terrorism, hatred, and violence.

Lent calls us to repentance and conversion so that the obstacles of indifference and sin which prevent us from following Christ more closely might be removed. We pray. We fast. We give alms. We do so to refocus our lives upon the cross of Christ. These pillars of Lent are meant to deepen our spiritual life and strengthen our relationship with Christ and His Church.

In his annual Message for Lent, Pope Francis reminds us why we celebrate Lent. He says: "Lent is a favorable time for letting Christ serve us so that we in turn may become more like him. This happens whenever we hear the word of God and receive the sacraments, especially the Eucharist. There we become what we receive: the Body of Christ. In this body there is no room for the indifference which so often seems to possess our hearts. For whoever is of Christ, belongs to one body, and in him we cannot be indifferent to one another."

One of the pillars of Lent is alms giving. Next weekend we have a great opportunity to practically give alms as we begin the Catholic Charity Appeal at Our Lady of Mercy, at all Masses. I hope you continue to be as supportive and generous to this important charity of our local Church as you have been in the past. Your generous donations enable the Catholic Church in Rhode Island to bring the good news of Christ to the poor, the sick, the suffering, the refugee, the prisoner and all those in need. I offer our thanks to Kevin and Nancy McDevitt and Stephen and Antonia Zubiago for once again serving as our Parish Chairs of the Appeal.

Lent is here! I hope and pray that it is truly a time of renewal, conversion and faith for you and your family and our entire parish. Hope to see you at Stations of the Cross on Fridays. Hope you make your way to Confession in the next weeks as well. Remember to pray, fast and give alms! Remember Fridays are for fish during Lent! God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: Why do Catholics have religious objects blessed? What are blessings for?

The blessing of religious objects is a sacramental in the Church.

Sacramentals are signs instituted by the Church that prepare us to receive grace. Unlike the Sacraments which are instituted by Christ and always effect what they signify, sacramentals depend more on us and how piously we make use of them.

Among sacramentals, blessings have a pride of place. There are a number of different kinds of blessings. Some pertain directly to persons and represent a permanent change in them, as in the blessing of an abbot or consecrated religious sister or brother. Some pertain to objects that have a secular use, like a blessing of a home for example. In this case, the blessing wards off evil spirits and formally asks God's blessing upon that object or place.

The blessing of religious objects, such as rosaries, however, mark off those objects for exclusively sacred use. One who uses them piously and with devotion is especially prepared to receive fruitfully the grace of the Sacraments.

Sacramentals have a certain power in that they raise our mind and heart to God. They have been set apart for God's service having been blessed usually by a priest. Through the Sacrament of Holy Orders, he has been given the power to invoke God's blessing. In some cases this is extended to deacons as well.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains: "Sacramentals do not confer the grace of the Holy Spirit in the way that the sacraments do, but by the Church's prayer, they prepare us to receive grace and dispose us to cooperate with it....Among sacramentals blessings (of persons, meals, objects, and places) come first. Every blessing praises God and prays for his gifts" (CCC 1670-1).

GUIDELINES FOR LENT 2015

OUR PARISH KEEPS LENT

Abstinence from meat on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent (for those 14 and older) is required by Church law. Also, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting: those between the ages of 18 and 59 should eat less, meaning, take no solid food between meals and only one full meal that day. Serious health conditions excuse a person from these precepts.

Pastors and parents are encouraged by the law of the Church to ensure that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated nonetheless in an authentic sense of penance. Following the implementation of the revised Code of Canon Law on November 27, 1983, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in the United States determined that the rules of fast and abstinence which have existed for the last several years in this country be maintained. Namely, that the faithful observe suitable penitential practices on all Fridays throughout the year.

These penitential practices need not include abstaining from meat. However, as indicated above, the faithful must not eat meat on all the Fridays of Lent as well as on Ash Wednesday. They must also observe faithfully the fast regulations as they have been stated above in accord with the universal law of the Church (Cf. Code of Canon Law, Canons 1250-1252).

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
