 5:00PM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy

Dear Parishioners:

Catholic Schools Week has ended and it was a grand celebration this week. The OLM School students speaking at Masses last weekend did a superb job and truly captured the spirit of our school. The OLM School Open House drew lots of visitors exploring the great opportunities offered at our parish school.

Every day this past week OLM School celebrated Catholic Schools Week with a different event, such as Mass on Monday, a Book Fair, a community service project and teacher appreciation day.

On Tuesday the students went bowling with their classes. However, two of our OLM School Fifth Graders sacrificed going bowling with their class and volunteered to serve a Funeral Mass being celebrated at the same hour. What a great witness to what OLM School is truly all about, "becoming saints and scholars so that mercy might flourish."

Now that Catholic Schools Week has concluded we look to the big event beginning this week. Yes, Lent begins this Wednesday as once again we begin the solemn fast of forty days! On Ash Wednesday we are distributing ashes at all four Masses, 7:30am, 9AM School Mass, 12:05PM and 7PM.

In the bulletin there is a full schedule of the Lenten Schedule at OLM. As is the tradition at OLM, we are adding an extra Daily Mass at 12:05PM, Monday through Friday during Lent. This Mass is to be attended by our OLM School students, but I also urge all of you to consider coming to one of the two Daily Masses offered at OLM during Lent. There is no better way to pray than Holy Mass, so consider coming to Mass during the week.

We are once again offering the Stations of the Cross on each Friday of Lent. It is truly a tremendous devotion to celebrate Lent as together we walk with Christ to Calvary. Please consider adding Stations to your Friday night schedule.

We also have added times for the Sacrament of Confession at OLM. On our normal Monday night Confessions at 6pm we are adding a guest priest confessor each week.

Also Confessions are to be heard every weekday during Lent. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays just before the 12:05PM Mass, Confessions are to be heard from 11:45am until Noon. And on Tuesdays and Thursdays we are to hear Confessions before the daily 7:30AM Mass from 7AM until 7:20AM.

In celebration of the Year of Mercy All-Day Confessions are taking place, on March 5th, across the state. OLM is once again hosting All-Day Confessions from 9AM until 3PM with four priests hearing confessions all day on March 5th. So please tell your friends and neighbors who have been away from the Church or the Sacrament of Confession, invite them to experience God's mercy, love and forgiveness!

We have a Lenten Mission scheduled in March. I'm happy to announce that Fr. Joe Upton, Chaplain at URI and Prout, is to lead the Mission. He is a dynamic preacher and a terrific young priest, so mark your calendar now for the Mission, March 7-9.

Lent means prayer, fasting and alms giving. The guidelines for fasting and abstinence are in the bulletin. Please remember Ash Wednesday is a day of fasting and abstinence and all the Fridays of Lent, in a spirit of sacrifice, we are to abstain from eating meat.

In the spirit of alms giving I encourage you take home a cardboard Rice Bowl and fill it with donations during Lent. All the money you give and sacrifice supports Operation Rice Bowl in their efforts to feed the hungry of the world. The great work of Catholic Relief Services benefits greatly from your generous donations to the Rice Bowl.

On Wednesday we come forward to have our foreheads smeared with ashes as we are reminded that we "are dust and unto dust we shall return." As we take up the cross of Lent with faith and sacrifice, let us truly commit to more prayer in our lives, more profound fasting from things that keep us from God, and a greater generosity in giving alms. Pope Francis reminds us: "Let us not waste this season of Lent, so favorable a time for conversion!" Pray. Fast. Give Alms. Be well. Do Good. Celebrate Lent! God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: What does the term evangelical mean?

The word evangelical can have different meanings. In a Catholic context it simply refers to sharing the Gospel. Our evangelical mission means our charge to share the Gospel with others.

The word evangelical comes from the ancient Greek word evangelian meaning “Good News” or “Gospel.” The Good News is that God has come. In Jesus of Nazareth, God has taken on a human face. He has come down from Heaven to save us from our sins. We can forget sometimes that the essence of Christianity is Good News, it is saving news, new information, as it were, which promises Heaven.

To evangelize then is to share the Christian faith. That can be directly as in missionaries who spread the faith as their full-time mission or more simply just speaking to others about God. It can be indirectly too as when we quietly live out our Catholic faith in view of sharing it with others.

The Good News is simply too good to keep to ourselves. In fact, one way to judge the authenticity of our faith is our wiliness to bring others to know the Lord. Our evangelical mission then, our evangelical fervor, is a good indicator of our own relationship with the Lord.

Separately, the word evangelical can also refer to non-Catholic Christians who most often don’t affiliate with a particular mainline Protestant tradition. They tend to be Bible-believing and deeply committed non-Catholic Christians.

Evangelical in the general sense however simply refers to being committed to sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ. In that sense, every Christian should be evangelical.

CHANGES LIVES.

2016 marks the 41st year of CRS Rice Bowl – the largest and oldest Lenten program practiced by Catholics in the United States. In 41 years, generations of Catholics have used their Lenten sacrifice to alleviate hunger caused by poverty and improve the lives of individual and families in developing countries as well as in their own communities. Please take your Rice Bowl home today and return your sacrificial donations made during Lent on Palm Sunday, March 20. Thank you for your support.

All OLM High-schoolers are welcomed to join the Our Lady of Mercy Youth Group, which meets every Sunday night in the OLM gym from 7:15-8:30 PM. The Youth Group is a great chance for students to socialize, play team-building sports together, and grow in prayer. For more information or questions, contact Michael LaChimia at mlachimia@olmschool.org

Fasting & Abstinence

With the season of Lent beginning on February 10, please take a moment to review the following Lenten Regulations.

Abstinence from meat on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent (for those 14 and older) is required by Church law. Also, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are fast days: those between the ages of 18 and 59 should eat less, meaning, take no solid food between meals and only one full meal that day. Serious reasons such as one's health can excuse a person from these rules. Pastors and parents are encouraged by the law of the Church to see to it that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance.

Following the implementation of the revised Code of Canon Law on November 27th, 1983, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in the United States determined that the rules of fast and abstinence which have existed for the last several years in this country be maintained; namely, that the faithful must observe suitable penitential practices on all Fridays throughout the year. These penitential practices need not include abstaining from meat. However, as indicated above, the faithful must not eat meat on all the Fridays of Lent as well as on Ash Wednesday. They must also observe faithfully the fast regulations as they have been stated above in accord with the universal law of the Church. (Cf. Code of Canon Law, Canons 1250-1252.)
