Dear Parishioners:

We celebrate the Baptism of the Lord this weekend. This is the end of the Christmas Season and on Monday we begin to take down the beautiful decorations. The crèche is to be put away for another year, the trees put in storage and the beautiful poinsettia plants are to find a new home.

At first glance, the Baptism of the Lord might seem an odd feast. Since the Church teaches that the Sacrament of Baptism is necessary for the remission of sins, particularly Original Sin, why was Christ baptized? After all, He was born without Original Sin, and He lived His entire life without sinning. Therefore, He had no need of the sacrament, as we do.

However, in submitting Himself humbly to the baptism of St. John the Baptist, Christ provided the example for the rest of us. If even He should be baptized, though He had no need of it, how much more should the rest of us be thankful for this sacrament, which frees us from the darkness of sin and incorporates us into the Church, the life of Christ on earth! His Baptism, therefore, was necessary--not for Him, but for us.

It is a time for us to recall our Baptismal promises to live the faith, to regularly receive the Sacraments of the Church, and to proclaim the Gospel in word and deed. At the celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism the parents of the child are asked: "You have asked to have your child baptized. In doing so you are accepting the responsibility of training him (her) in the practice of the faith. It will be your duty to bring him (her) up to keep God's commandments as Christ taught us, by loving God and our neighbor. Do you clearly understand what you are undertaking?"

Over the last twenty years I have performed hundreds of baptism and each time the parents answer "Yes"! Sadly many of these parents along with their children drift away from the Church. It always saddens me when that "Yes" proclaimed with such joy, hope, and faith fades away and good people drift away from God and His Church.

Last week while celebrating Mass in St. Peter's Basilica on New Year's Day, Pope Francis spoke about those who seek to live their faith outside the Church. He said the faith "is not an abstract doctrine or philosophy, but a vital and full relationship with a person: Jesus Christ. Where can we encounter him? We encounter him in the Church. it is the Church, which proclaims Him; it is in the Church that Jesus continues to accomplish his acts of grace which are the sacraments.

No manifestation of Christ, even the most mystical, can ever be detached from the flesh and blood of the Church, from the historical concreteness of the Body of Christ. Without the Church, Jesus Christ ends up as an idea, a moral teaching, a feeling. Without the Church, our relationship with Christ would be at the mercy of our imagination, our interpretations, our moods."

Today as we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, and begin this New Year, may we commit to praying for those who have drifted from the Church. Let us pray they might return to the fold and once again be part of our community. Let us also invite those we know back, welcome them home, and encourage them to keep the faith in the Church!

Father Christopher Murphy, Chaplain at Bishop Hendricken High School and Assistant Vocations Director, is to preach at all Masses next weekend. He is an outstanding young priest and I think you will find him a dynamic preacher. He is to preach to us about his work promoting vocations to the priesthood.

We continue to grieve and mourn the tragic death of two of New York City's finest while our nation continues to grapple with issues of violence, race and justice. So I invite you to join with members of the many diverse faith communities of our state along with the members of state and local police departments for a Prayer Vigil for Peace. Certainly prayer is a positive way for all of us to respond to the violence that continues to plague our nation. The Prayer Vigil is to take place this Tuesday night at 7:00PM at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul. God Bless! Go Pats!!!!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: When does Christmas end?

The Christmas season ends on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, celebrated on the Sunday following Epiphany. That week begins the celebration of ordinary time until the season of Lent.

The eight days following Christmas are the known as the Christmas octave or the so-called "eight days of Christmas." This privileged period ends on January 1 with the celebration of the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. The Christmas season continues through Epiphany, celebrated in the United States on the second Sunday after Christmas and in other parts of the world on January 6.

For the octave of Christmas there are special prayers both at the celebration of Holy Mass and in the Liturgy of the Hours, the official prayer of the Church prayed especially by priests and religious. During Mass the Gloria is said each day, for example. The priest and deacon wear white throughout the Christmas season until the Monday after the feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

There is one final distinction. The feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the temple is celebrated on February 2. There is some sense in which the season of Christmas, at least in an analogous way, extends through that day. The Christmas tree in the papal apartment in Rome traditionally was kept up until February 2.

Likewise, the proper chant for the Blessed Virgin Mary, sung during solemn celebrations of the Liturgy of the Hours or at Holy Mass, is the same one for Advent, Christmas and until February 2. At Mass at Our Lady of Mercy, for example, often after the distribution of Holy Communion, the proper chant in honor of Mary will be sung until February 2, that is the Alma Redemptoris Mater, which is Latin for "Loving Mother of the Redeemer." There is a different one for Lent and a different one for Easter. The well-known Salve Regina is for most of ordinary time.

Christmas might come but once a year but it extends beyond just December 25. The truth is the coming of God is too great to be celebrated in just one day.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

Prayer Vigil for Peace

Tuesday, January 13th
7:00PM

Cathedral of Saints Peter & Paul
Providence

All are Invited to Attend

The Roman Catholic Diocese of Providence in conjunction with local faith leaders, RI State Council of Churches, the RI Board of Rabbis, RI Council for Muslim Advancement, the RI State Police, Providence Police and the RI Police Chiefs Association announce a Prayer Vigil for Peace at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul in Providence on Tuesday, January 13, 2015 at 7:00 PM. We have all been concerned by the recent acts of violence across the nation and recognize that the most sincere efforts of reconciliation must be inspired by God's presence and grace. With that desire, we will gather for community prayer, sober reflection and renewed hope for the peace only God can give. We will pray for all members of the law enforcement community, the community at large and all who long for and work for peace, justice and harmony in our beloved state.

Baptism of the Lord

The feast of the Baptism of the Lord, our commemoration of the institution of the sacrament of baptism, is the last feast of the Christmas season and is usually observed on the Sunday following January 6.

The calendar sometimes causes it to fall on a Monday, but in its usual Sunday slot, it offers an excellent opportunity for parishes to focus on baptism by using the rite of blessing and sprinkling holy water or to celebrate the sacrament during Mass, especially if this not the usual custom.

The Baptism of the Lord launches us right into winter Ordinary Time with its concentration on the earlier public life and preaching of Jesus.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
