Dear Parishioners:

Last week we watched in horror as yet more innocents were killed by terrorists. This time it was in France but we have seen it in the United States, Spain, England, Australia, Pakistan and across the Middle East. These horrific attacks by Jihadists should cause us all to pause and pray.

We pray for the many victims and their grieving families, we pray for the police and military who protect us from such attacks, and we pray for peace and justice among peoples and nations. We even pray for the terrorists and all those filled with hatred and violence that they may have a conversion of heart.

Praying for our enemies is never easy yet we know we must do so as Christians. So let us pray for all those who seek to do us harm, all those who kill in the name of religion, all those who persecute and oppress peoples and nations, that the God of love might guide them away from violence and hatred to His peace and justice. Prayer must be the weapon we use to wage war on hatred, violence, terror and injustice!

I invite you to join with us this Thursday as we mark the anniversary of the tragic Supreme Court Decision Roe v. Wade, that legalized abortion in our nation, with prayer. This is yet another sad occasion that calls for our prayers. We join Catholics and many others across the nation in observing a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children.

Thousands are to attend the March for Life in Washington, DC on Thursday to support the right to life for the unborn and rally in defense of life. Pope Francis reminded us of the great and urgent need to defend life when as Archbishop of Buenos Aires he said: "Defend the unborn against abortion even if they persecute you, calumniate you, set traps for you, take you to court or kill you."

I hope you can stop in Church on Thursday and offer prayers in support of life. This weekend we are privileged to have with us one of our outstanding young priests, Father Chris Murphy. Fr. Murphy serves as Chaplain at Hendricken High School and also as Assistant Vocations Director for the Diocese of Providence. These two important jobs keep him busy, and so I am grateful that he was able to take some time to be with us at Our Lady of Mercy.

Father is here to preach at all Masses about his important work in promoting vocations to the priesthood. We are blessed to have a vocation from our parish as Brain Morris, of Our Lady of Mercy, continues his studies at St. John's Seminary in Boston. We continue to pray for him and his vocation. However, we must also take up prayers for more vocations to the priesthood for the Diocese of Providence.

Presently there are twenty young men preparing for the priesthood for our diocese. This June we are scheduled to ordain three young men to the priesthood. However, we may have as many as six priests retiring from active ministry this year. So you can see there is urgent need for more vocations!

We are blessed at OLM with two priests, a deacon and even a seminarian from the parish. However, many other parishes have just one priest for two churches and sometimes even just one priest for three churches! There is a great need for more priests to serve God's people here in Rhode Island. So I urge you to please pray for more vocations to the priesthood. Also, please encourage your sons, grandsons, nephews, brothers, and any young man you may know to consider the priesthood.

I hope you survived the cold and frigid weather over the last week. We saw temperatures below zero with cold, snowy and gusty winds! Thankfully the new gas boiler in church was working overtime.

It is hard to keep the heat at a high level in our large church but the new boiler sure did a great job. The old boiler in the Rectory had a more difficult time, but Paul Anderson, our crafty maintenance man, managed to apply some Band-Aids to it and keep the heat on for us! We hope to replace the Rectory boiler in the spring. Have a great week. Pray for peace, in defense of life and for vocations! Welcome to OLM Fr. Murphy! I am away on vacation this week. God Bless. Go Pats Go!!!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: From Good Friday until East Sunday, what happened to the Son of God? Were there only two persons in the Trinity?

In a certain sense this question is quite challenging. In another sense it is quite easy. First, God doesn't change. God has absolutely no need of us. He is eternal, and perfect, and is not changed. In that sense, God does not suffer. So, the Trinity remained unchanged through Good Friday and Holy Saturday. For all eternity there are three persons in the Trinity. That is who God is.

When Jesus died on the Cross His human soul was separated from His body. Like any human death it means the soul is separated from the body. Both the body and soul of Christ, however, remained hypostatically united to the second person of the Trinity. For that reason, his body did not rot. That simply means they were united to the second divine person of the Trinity. The incarnation was not cancelled on the Cross. The Word of God remained united to the human body and human soul of Christ.

From Good Friday until the early hours of Easter Sunday morning, Christ descended into Hell. At that point, He preached the Good News to the souls who went before Him, inviting the just souls into Heaven. This, in a way, was the beginning of His triumph.

During this time, the Trinity was not altered. The human nature of Christ experienced this suffering, but the Trinity was not changed.

It is important to have a proper understanding of who God is. He is not subject to the whims of this world. It is precisely the God who has no need of us, who utterly transcends us, who chose to come down from Heaven to live among us. Understanding that God in His divinity does not suffer or change, actually shows how much this utterly transcendent God debased Himself to come down to us.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

A Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

Thursday,
January 22, 2015
7:30AM Mass
Followed by

All Day Eucharistic Adoration

7:00PM Rosary for Life &
Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

Join us on the anniversary of the tragic decision to legalize abortion in the United States as we pray for the legal protection of unborn children and an increase in respect for all human life at every stage.

A PRAYER FOR LIFE

Father and maker of all, you adorn all creation with splendor and beauty, and fashion human lives in your image and likeness. Awaken in every heart reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

“Among the vulnerable for whom the church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenseless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity and to do with them whatever one pleases, taking their lives and passing laws preventing anyone from standing in the way of this. Precisely because this involves the internal consistency of our message about the value of the human person, the church cannot be expected to change her position on this question... It is not ‘progressive’ to try to resolve problems by eliminating a human life.”— Pope Francis, Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium (#213-21)

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
