Dear Parishioners:

I was informed this week by Father Dore that he is not coming but that Fr. Susai Pascal Raj who just arrived from India will now be preaching the Mission Co-Op this weekend at OLM.

The Mission Co-Op annually calls us to see beyond the borders of our own parish and diocese and help support the work of the Church in the Missions. As American Catholics we are blessed with a Church that has many financial resources and many generous benefactors. This is not true for the Church in the Missions especially in India where the Catholic population is small.

Fr. Raj is here to preach about the great needs in India for building up and sustaining the Church and helping the neediest. I ask you to please be generous in responding to the call for help and to continue to pray for the Missions. Also please give Father Raj your usual warm welcome to OLM!

Father Connors and I have been meeting and planning for the upcoming year. We hope to offer a series of Adult Education Lectures, offer Adoration on a regular basis, and we looking forward to being very involved in the school and the newly restructured Religious Education Program.

Recently at a meeting with the priests of the Diocese, Bishop Tobin told us that there are over 500 Masses offered across the Diocese of Providence every weekend! We have a Catholic population of about 600,000 people of which about a third go to Mass on Sundays. In this tiny state that is a whole lot of Masses, many of which are not well attended.

So our Bishop is asking Pastors to look at their Mass schedules to see if Masses need to be reduced. This is especially true for parishes where there is only one priest but have a Mass schedule that was originally designed for two or three priests.

We are truly blessed at OLM with a large Church that holds over 800 people and two priests. It is because of this that we are able to offer four Masses on weekends. But beginning on the first Sunday in September we are to offer a fifth Weekend Mass at 5:00PM on Sunday nights. This Mass is to be offered only from September through June.

Many parishioners have told me that they often have commitments on Saturday nights and Sunday mornings and therefore go to Mass on Sunday night at St. Francis de Sales or Saints Rose and Clement. Both those parishes have just one priest and with two priests here at OLM we felt we should offer a similar option. Plus we'd like to keep our parishioners coming to OLM!

Also this Mass is to be followed by Religious Education Classes for Grades 6, 7 & 8 on Sundays from 6:00PM until 7:00PM. So please spread the word to your family, friends and neighbors that beginning on September 1st they can go to Mass on Sunday nights at 5:00PM!

In addition our Religious Education Program for Grades 1 through 5 is to meet on Sundays from 10:00AM until 11:00AM following the 9:00AM Family Mass. Moving RE Classes to Sundays connects Religious Education closer to the Eucharist and also provides a better opportunity for the priests to be more involved. So get ready for "Mass and Class" this upcoming year.

Last Saturday I visited with Sister Edna Lynch, RSM at Mt. St. Rita in Cumberland. Sister Edna has had some serious setbacks in her health that require greater care. She has decided that she is to remain at Mt. St. Rita and leave the Our Lady of Mercy Convent. She has lived on her own but now she feels she needs greater access to health care givers.

She has written a short note published in the bulletin this week. Also her address is listed in this week's bulletin if you would like to send her best wishes. Mt. St. Rita is certainly a beautiful place and she is getting the great care and attention she so justly deserves. Please keep her in your prayers and drop her a note or go stop by for visit if you can.

In your name, I welcome to OLM Father Raj! I am in up-state New York this weekend to perform the baptism of my grand-niece and leave you in the capable hands of Fr. Connors See you next week. God Bless. Go Sox!!

Father Healey

The Catechism Corner

The front page of the local newspaper, the headline on the evening news, or the radio update on the drive home very often can exercise greater influence on the formation of our conscience than do the teachings of the Church. This is to be expected, in one way, because we do live in the world. We have to contend with the barrage of an agenda that might not be altogether Christian, but what we can never do is substitute its "teachings" for those of Christ and of His Church. Christians have never sought to flee the world--to run away and bury their head in the sand--but instead we should be shaping the world to be in conformity with the Gospel. Our secular surroundings can at times hinder us in forming the "Christian perspective" in many areas. How we view poverty, war, politics, and the like are very much the product of what?? ...our social status?? ...our education??...our neighborhood?? ...or our Faith?? During the unfolding of the recent events in Kosovo, have we once turned to the Catechism?? Or are we satisfied hearing what Peter Jennings, The New York Times, and NPR has to say about it all. It might be helpful to be reminded of a basic Catholic responsibility--to learn more about our Faith so that it might influence every thing that we do--including international affairs. The Catechism clearly teaches us: "The fifth commandment forbids the intentional destruction of human life. Because of the evils and injustices that accompany all war, the Church insistently urges everyone to prayer and to action so that the divine Goodness may free us from the ancient bondage of war." If there is to be warfare then definite criteria must be met first. "These are the traditional elements enumerated in what is called the 'just war' theory." They are as follows:

- the damage inflicted by the aggressor on the nation or community of nations must be lasting, grave, or certain;
- all other means of putting an end to it must have been shown to be impractical or ineffective;
- there must be serious prospects of success;
- the use of arms must not produce evils and disorders graver than the evil to be eliminated. The power of modern means of destruction weighs very heavily in evaluating this condition." It might be helpful then to keep the Catechism right next to the TV., the radio, and the newspaper, just to make sure you can check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #2307-2309.

The Altar Flowers at the Marian Shrine are donated this week in memory of Kathryn Piotrowicz.

Alb

The full-length white garment worn by ministers at liturgy is the alb.

Its name comes from alba, the Latin word for “white,” and its significance flows from the white baptismal garment we all wore as we were initiated into the Christian community.

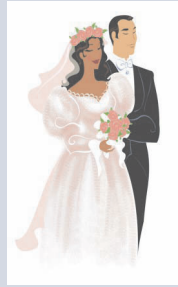

Similar reflections of the white baptismal garment are seen in the white dress of first communicants and the white pall placed on the casket at funerals.

The alb and other symbolic forms of white dress among Christians point to our destiny as baptized persons as envisioned in the book of Revelation wherein white-robed multitudes stand in the new Jerusalem praising the Lord.
