10:30 AM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy

Dear Parishioners:

I hope you've been able to see some of the news coverage of the Holy Father's visit to Brazil for World Youth Day. Huge crowds greeted him upon his arrival. Pope Francis said he had come to Brazil, the country with the most Catholics in the world, to "give an account of the reasons for the hope" that comes from faith in Jesus and inspire them to "offer everyone the inexhaustible riches of his love."

World Youth Day began in 1984 at the close of the Holy Year of Redemption, when over 300,000 young people from around the world responded to the invitation of Blessed Pope John Paul II for an International Jubilee of youth on Palm Sunday in St. Peter's square. Looking out to the crowds who answered his invitation he said, "What a fantastic spectacle is presented on this stage by your gathering here today! Who claimed that today's youth has lost their sense of values? Is it really true that they cannot be counted on?"

There have been 11 World Youth Day gatherings since 1984. In 1993 World Youth Day was celebrated in Denver, Colorado and it has been held in Spain, Australia, Canada, Italy, Germany, The Philippines, Argentina and Poland.

Some might think that such a large gathering of young people, that is World Youth Day, might bring thoughts of delinquency as the massive crowds of youth flood streets. However, anyone who was to witness this gathering would end those fears. The World Youth Day gatherings are full of smiles and joy, singing and dancing young people, culture upon culture and nation upon nation, proudly holding their flags high, greeting one another in peace, trading their national tokens, humbly realizing how small they are in a world of people, and strengthened to witness so many who share their convictions.

Acknowledging the hundreds of thousands of young Catholic pilgrims gathered in Rio for World Youth Day, Pope Francis said they need space, which they find in Christ, since "there is no more powerful force than the one released from the hearts of young people when they have been conquered by the experience of friendship with Him."

The coverage of the events of World Youth Day in Rio have centered upon Pope Francis and his unique style. He arrived carrying his own luggage and drove through the streets of Rio in a small Fiat car. The Holy Father seems to have a great sense of humor as well. When the journalists asked for a chance to interview him, Pope Francis responded: "It's true I don't give interviews. I don't know why. I just can't. It's tiresome, but I enjoy your company."

World Youth Day is a great event of joy, hope and faith for our Church. Let us pray for all those hundreds of thousands of pilgrims gathered together in Rio to celebrate their faith in Jesus Christ and His Church. Also, let us pray for our Holy Father, Pope Francis, that his pilgrimage might inspire the young people of our Church to be faithful witnesses of Christ. One young pilgrim from the Ivory Coast in Africa when asked what he wanted to happen at the celebration said: "What I want is for our pope to tell all people to have faith and tell people to be friends. The pope cannot resolve the problems of society, but he can illuminate the right path."

Next week we have a chance to practically aid the good works of Pope Francis by supporting the Peter's Pence Collection. The 2013 theme is "Be a Pilgrim of Charity" and emphasizes the role of Catholics in allowing Christ's love to reach others. This worldwide collection supports church needs and humanitarian activities, through support for victims of war, oppression, religious persecution, natural disasters and other human promotion projects around the world. It also assists seminaries and institutes of Christian formation in developing countries.

Pope Francis has encouraged Catholics to serve others in need and the Peter's Pence Collection is a great way to help the Holy Father help those most in need around the world. Have a great week! Pray for World Youth Day and for Pope Francis! God Bless. Go Sox!!

Father Healey

The Catechism Corner

We usually don't think of "clouds" as being the best things to see on the horizon. Dark clouds usually bring with them storms and all kinds of bad weather. White clouds, while beautiful to look at, always seem to block out the sun for an otherwise perfect day. "A cloudy day" is never said with much enthusiasm on the 11:00 o'clock news either. But there is one cloud though that should always be mentioned with enthusiasm. It's a very special type of "cloud" and it's particularly a "Catholic" cloud as well. It's the "cloud of witnesses" that lies on the horizon ahead of us between heaven and earth. "Cloud of witnesses" is the ancient name for all the saints who have gone before us to heaven. When we see this "cloud" in the distance we should always know that "good weather" is about to begin. "The witnesses who have preceded us into the kingdom, especially those whom the Church recognizes as saints, share in the living tradition of prayer by the example of their lives, the transmission of their writings, and their prayer today. They contemplate God, praise him and constantly care for those whom they have left on earth." They are "witnesses" because they prove to us that the Christian life can be lived in all of its rigor and vigor. The example of their lives reminds us that if they could do it, so can we! But more importantly than being just an example they help us more precisely by the prayers they offer for us in the very presence of God Himself. In fact, "their intercession is their most exalted service to God's plan. We can and should ask them to intercede for us and the whole world." The saints in heaven have a special outlook on the world as well--they see things as they really are. (Just like any good cloud, the "cloud of witnesses" has a perfect view of the world from its height.) They are not led astray as we can be by the passing pleasures of this world. The "cloud of witnesses" is "locked into" the true pleasures of the next world and so they help us attain those true pleasures by praying for us. The next time you're looking up in the sky wondering what it would be like to be a cloud, more wondrously, imagine what it would be like to be part of the "cloud of witnesses" in the glory of heaven with the splendor of Almighty God shining all around you--and of course, that's a splendor that no cloud can block out! Don't wait for a cloudy day to check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #2683.

Our Mission is: "...that Mercy may flourish."

ABOUT THE SECOND COLLECTION

Next week our diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Your gift makes you a pilgrim of charity around the globe.

Charity bears all things,
believes all things,
hopes all things,
endures all things.
