Dear Parishioners:

This past Wednesday evening thirty-one of the young men and women of our 8th grade graduated from Our Lady of Mercy School. It was a great celebration for our parish and for the graduates and their families. We wish them congratulations and good luck as they head off to high school. We pray that they continue to build on the great foundation of faith and wisdom received at our parish school.

This week school ends in East Greenwich at both our public schools and at Our Lady of Mercy School. Of course, summer arrives officially on June 21st and so begins those lazy, hazy days of the season. We begin the celebration of summer with its vacations away from home, trips to the beach, picnics, cookouts, golfing, boating, sailing and family gatherings. I pray the summer provides you some time to rest and relax from the regular routine.

The summer also means a decline in Mass attendance at OLM as many parishioners go off to summer homes or travel away on vacation. I encourage those parishioners travelling to take a look at a fabulous website called Masstimes.org which provides the Mass times at Catholic Churches across the globe. Please don't take a vacation from Mass this summer!

When you do go to Mass while travelling be sure to bring back a parish bulletin and throw it in the collection basket when you return to OLM. I always like to see where people have been travelling and also to see what's going on at Catholic parishes outside of Rhode Island.

This coming Wednesday we celebrate the retirement of Sister Jeanne Barry as the Our Lady of Mercy School Principal. She has been at OLM for 17 years with 13 of those years serving as our Principal. We will gather on Wednesday at 5:00PM to offer a Mass of Thanksgiving for Sister Jeanne's many years of dedicated and faithful service to the Church, our parish, and school. Following Mass we gather at the Quidnessett Country Club to pay tribute to Sister with dinner and enjoy a little roast!

We thank Sister Jeanne for all she has been for us and all she has done for our parish and school. She certainly has earned such a celebration and tribute. We wish her well as she begins her much deserved retirement. God Bless you Sister Jeanne, ad multos annos!

Next weekend we celebrate the great Feast of Corpus Christi, the Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. We mark the feast at OLM with our Annual Eucharistic Procession following the 10:30AM Mass ending with Benediction at Mercy Park. The Eucharist is the source and summit of our Catholic Faith and so we celebrate with great solemnity and deep prayer.

We officially welcome our new OLM School Principal, Mr. Scott Fuller, next weekend. He and his wife join us at 10:30AM

Mass and there is a Welcome Reception in the OLM Gym following Mass. I ask you to pray for Mr. Fuller as he prepares to lead our school, and I hope you can stop by to welcome him to our parish next Sunday.

We celebrate Fathers' Day today, a day that pays tribute to God's gift of Fatherhood and we give thanks for our own Fathers. We offer Masses this weekend for all Fathers, both living and deceased. Fathers need our prayers and support, please pray for them.

We need look no further than to the patron saint of fathers, St. Joseph, for the ultimate model of fatherhood. St. Joseph sacrificed whatever self-centered inclinations he might have had for the greater good of his foster son, Jesus Christ – and not just once at the news of the Incarnation, but repeatedly in protecting and rearing the Son of God into adulthood. St. Joseph is the model of fatherhood for all fathers to aspire. May he, intercede for fathers and inspire them to be strong, loving and wise.

May God bless all OLM Fathers! Happy Fathers' Day! Also, may God bless and protect all our school children this summer. May they be happy, healthy and holy during this time away from school. We look forward to their return in September. Summer is coming, so enjoy it while it lasts! God Bless. Go Sox, please!!!

Banns of Marriage

III Roxan Ramos & Robert Paul Nemitz
Our Lady of Mercy Ss. Rose & Clement

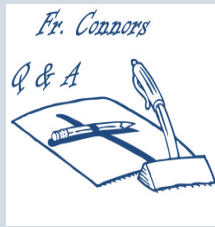

We offer our prayers and condolences to the families of Our Lady of Mercy Parishioners, Barbara T. McMahon and Albert R. Catanio whose Masses of Christian Burial were celebrated here last week.

The Altar Flowers at the Marian Shrine have been donated in loving memory of all deceased Fathers.

Dear Fr. Connors: What does it mean when we say we believe in the resurrection of the body?

The Apostles' Creed, prayed among other places at the beginning of every rosary, declares: I believe in the resurrection of the body. Very simply, it means the human being is composed of body and soul which one way or another will live forever.

The resurrection of the body will take place at the end of time, at the end of world. At that time, the bodies of all the dead will rise and be reunited with their souls, either in Heaven or in Hell. The reason for this is simple: God didn't make a mistake when he created man as a body-soul composite. Angels are pure spirits, but human beings are made of body and soul.

The dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, celebrated as a Holy Day of Obligation on August 15, celebrates that the reality of the resurrection of the body has already taken place for Mary. Unlike the rest of humanity, Mary did not experience the corruption of separation of soul and body, but instead was assumed immediately into Heaven. In Mary, we see the promise of the resurrection of the body already realized.

From this dogma, we see that the body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. It is not simply a machine for the soul to use, but is itself a holy thing. God didn't make a mistake in giving us bodies nor in taking on a human body Himself in Jesus His Son.

The resurrection of the body means the body is always to be used for God's glory. Using it just like another object is a violation of good sense and Christian understanding. No wonder the Church takes so seriously sins involving the body, especially in the area of chastity. Anything involving the body should glorify God and never degrade human dignity. The resurrection of the body points to the holiness of the body, now and forever.

If you have a question on the Church and Her teachings for Fr. Connors send it to associatepastor@olmparish.org

Prayer for Fathers on Fathers' Day

God our Father,
 We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.
 We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.
 We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.
 We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.
 We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.
 We ask this all through Christ our Lord. Amen

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
