Dear Parishioners:

This weekend we celebrate the great Solemnity of Corpus Christi. In this celebration we proclaim our belief in the Real presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. We also proclaim that same Jesus lives within each one of us who are Baptized into His Body, the Church. In the Holy Eucharist we receive the Divine Host whom we carry in procession. Through our Baptism he has taken up residence within each one of us. We carry Him into the real world just as we carry the monstrance in procession today. When we process we proclaim that the Lord continues to come into the world, through us.

The celebration of this Solemnity goes back to the thirteenth century. Pope Urban IV instituted it in 1264 for the entire Church. He wanted it to be filled with joy and accompanied by hymns and a festive procession. He asked the great Western Church father, St. Thomas Aquinas, to compose two Offices of prayer. St Thomas did so- along with five hymns - and they have nourished the faith of Christians for centuries.

In one of them St. Thomas noted: "Material food first of all turns itself into the person who eats it, and as a consequence, restores his losses and increases his vital energies. Spiritual food, on the other hand, turns the person who eats it into Itself, and thus the proper effect of this sacrament is the conversion of man into Christ, so that he may no longer live for himself, but that Christ may live in Him. And as a consequence it has the double effect of restoring the spiritual losses caused by sins and defects and of increasing the power of the virtues".

We will celebrate Corpus Christi with great solemnity at the 10:30AM Mass. The Mass will include a Eucharistic Procession to Mercy Park and then Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. As we celebrate the great gift of the Eucharist this weekend, we might reflect on the words of Blessed Mother of Theresa of Calcutta: "Our lives must be woven around the Eucharist...fix your eyes on Him Who is the light; bring your hearts close to His Divine Heart; ask Him to grant you the grace of knowing Him, the love of loving Him, the courage to serve Him. Seek Him fervently."

We also celebrate this weekend the ordination of two new priests for the Diocese of Providence. On Saturday morning Bishop Tobin ordained Scott J. Carpentier and Thomas J. Woodhouse as priests. Fathers Carpentier and Woodhouse are great young men and we are blessed to have them answer God's call to serve His Church. They are to be assigned by Bishop Tobin as assistant pastors and will soon be serving at parishes in the Diocese. We congratulate them and offer our prayers for them and their priestly ministry.

While there were only two ordained priests this year, we had eight priests retire from parish administration. This means there are fewer priests to serve the 150 parishes and many other priestly ministries needed in the Diocese.

So it's clear that we need to pray for vocations to the priesthood. Do you know a young man who might make a good priest? Have you told him? Have you asked your sons, nephews, grandsons or even a neighbor? "The harvest is plenty but the workers are few", let's see if we can change that by our prayers and our invitations. You can get more information at www.catholicpriest.com

Speaking of priests, I hope to find out this week who is to be assigned as our new Assistant Pastor at Our Lady of Mercy. Once I've learned who it is from the Bishop, I will announce it to the parish. Fr. Shemek is back from Poland this week and will be with us until the end of the month. His new assignment as Pastor of St. Christopher and St. Theresa Parishes in Tiverton is effective on July 1, 2013. His replacement assumes his duties here at OLM on July 1, 2013 as well.

Also, at the end of the month I am retiring from my duties as the Theological Consultant and Editorial Writer of the RI Catholic. It has been a great fifteen years working at the weekly diocesan paper but it is clear the time to move on from the paper has arrived. God Bless.

Father Healey

The Catechism Corner

It hardly seems that the Eucharist would be a source of division in the world. After all, the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ Himself--He who is the source of all true unity. It remains a sad fact that there are many Christians who do not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Should this "division" among Christians surprise us? Not really--"the Eucharist and the Cross are stumbling blocks. It is the same mystery and it never ceases to be an occasion for division." Christ even had disciples who left Him when He taught about the gift of His Body and Blood (John 6:6). This "division," one might claim then, is the very division which Christ came to bring--the division between falsehood and Truth, between vice and virtue, between sin and grace. This division first and foremost happens within our own heart. We become more and more "divided" from our sins as we grow closer to Christ through the Eucharist. In terms of Christian unity, we must never cease to pray for this unity which will only be the result of a full realization of the Truth--of Christ Himself--of His Church--of His Sacraments. Check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #1336.

Body and Blood of Christ

Today's solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ celebrates the doctrine of the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

This feast was established in the thirteenth century not long after the Fourth Lateran Council reaffirmed this doctrine in the face of much theological debate on the issue.

In former days, it was known as Corpus Christi, the Body of Christ, and there was a separate feast of the Precious Blood. The current church calendar combines the two into a single celebration.

In many places of the world, it is still celebrated on its traditional day, the Thursday after Trinity Sunday. That day was chosen by the church to remember Holy Thursday, the day on which the Eucharist was instituted.
