Sunday, June 29th

Dear Parishioners:

It's beginning to look a lot like summer! Last Saturday was the first day of summer but the weather has also provided that summer feeling we needed so badly. School is out and summer has begun!

We had our first OLM Vacation Bible School this past week. Over fifty children from the parish and about twenty young volunteers had a terrific week learning about their Catholic Faith. I am grateful to Miss Croteau and Mrs. Maguire from our OLM School Faculty for helping organize this great opportunity. Also our Summer Seminarian Nick, Fr. Connors and several parents helped the OLM VBS be a great success.

We hope that this will become an annual event at OLM where the parish children can come to a safe and friendly environment and learn more about Jesus and His Church. Fifty is a good start but we have hundreds of young children at OLM so I look forward to even more children participating in the VBS!

Last week's Corpus Christi Procession was a beautiful tribute to the faith of Our Lady of Mercy Parish. Many of our parishioners joined the procession and filled Mercy Park for Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. It was a great witness to our faith in the Eucharist and truly wonderful to see. Wouldn't be great if we could get all of our parishioners to join the procession and go right down Main Street! Perhaps we might just try it in the future.

I am grateful to the Adult Choir for their beautiful singing on the Feast of Corpus Christi. They did another great job of helping us to pray and worship God solemnly and joyfully. Both the Adult and Children's Choirs will be off during the summer months. We thank them for their generosity for so willingly sharing their great talents. Both these choirs are great and we are truly blessed to have them at OLM.

Also Nick La Roche who has been serving as our Interim Parish Organist and Choir Director leaves us after this weekend. Nick generously volunteered to serve for an interim period and now he returns to his full-time career. We are grateful for all his hard work and for sharing his beautiful voice with us. We wish him well and I am sure he will be back to sing on occasion. We also thank Steve Martorella who filled in as organist on Saturday and Sunday nights the last few months.

I am happy to announce Henri St. Louis as our new Our Lady of Mercy Parish Organist and Choir Director. You have most likely heard Henri play the organ before as he has substituted here many times for Masses, Funerals and Weddings. He comes to OLM after serving as the Organist and Co-Director of music at Holy Apostles Church in Cranston.

Henri is a very accomplished musician and holds a degree in Church Music magna cum laude. He has served as an organist at Holy Apostles but also at Precious Blood Church in Woonsocket, and St. Augustine Church in Providence. He will continue to serve as the Music Director at the Seminary of Our Lady of Providence.

In his "spare" time he composes music, restores organs, plays the harpsichord, conducts choirs, teaches music theory and organ. Henri is the founder and conductor of the Schola Cantorum Sanctae, a choral ensemble which specializes in unaccompanied sacred music. We welcome Henri St. Louis to Our Lady of Mercy. He begins next weekend so please be sure to say hello to him and give your usual warm OLM welcome! We look forward to Henri's great talent as an organist and our soloist Deirdre Donovan's beautiful voice!

Today Bishop Tobin is celebrating a special Mass in honor of the 125th Anniversary of the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul. It is truly fitting to celebrate such a happy anniversary for our Mother Church on the feast of our patrons, Saints Peter and Paul. There is a short history of the Cathedral in the bulletin this week. If you have never visited the magnificent Cathedral in Providence, you should make an effort to visit the newly restored Church. It is well worth the time and effort to see such a beautiful tribute to our worship of God. Happy 125th Anniversary! God Bless. Go Sox!!

Father Healey

Dear Nicholas: How did you decided to enter the seminary?

All of God's people have been given a vocation by their Creator which can only be discovered through discernment and openness to God's Will. I was blessed throughout my childhood to be taken to daily Mass by my Mother. Although I was not always the most cooperative child, I started to notice that God was working in my heart. That is when I started to open my heart to the will of God and began to spend time silently praying and seeking out the vocation God had chosen for me.

However, because of the gift and responsibility of free will, we are never forced to follow God's vocation in our lives. At the end of high school, I began to think that I did not want to be a priest. I began to become lax in my silent prayer which led me to become less concerned with doing the Will of God. I decided to follow my own path and, although it was not an immoral path, I did not feel the same peace which I had felt when I was searching for the vocation God had prepared for me.

I turned back to prayer and my desire to follow God's path grew stronger. As I entered back into true prayer, that is conversation with God, I began to feel drawn back to the priesthood. This time I did not let my own desires, fears or anxieties get in the way of God's will and I entered the seminary. Since entering I have felt a great peace and, although it is not always easy, I trust that God is leading me to His glory.

It is through discernment that we come to know the vocation which God is calling us to, but we must first know how to discern. First, you must start with prayer. Second, you must have an open heart. Third, you must never stop until you have reach Eternal Life. I hope this was helpful.

Peace of Christ,
Seminarian Nicholas Robenhymer

125th Anniversary of the Cathedral of SS. Peter & Paul

The Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul traces its history back to 1832. At that time, Rev. John Corry was the priest in charge of the missionary territory incorporating the city of Providence. Father Corry purchased a plot of land in the city on a slope of land that was then called, "Christian Hill". The first structure on the site was a small church, built to provide a place of worship to the then limited number of Catholics in Rhode Island. This structure was dedicated as the Church of SS. Peter and Paul on November 4, 1938. In 1844, the Diocese of Hartford was created. Bishop Tyler soon began to purchase land to enlarge the church which was consecrated as a Cathedral in 1847. Bishop Tyler died in 1849 and was buried in the crypt of the Cathedral. He was succeeded in 1850 by Right Rev. Bernard O' Reilly who soon traveled to Europe and while in Dublin, ordained Rev. Thomas F. Hendricken a priest, and invited him to come to America. Bishop O' Reilly was lost at sea in 1856 when returning from a second trip to Europe. In 1858 Right Rev. Francis Patrick McFarland was consecrated the third bishop of Hartford. As his predecessors has done, Bishop McFarland continued to live in Providence. However, in 1872, the Diocese of Providence was created with the consecration of Right Rev. Thomas F. Hendricken as the First Bishop of Providence. Three months after taking office, Bishop Hendricken began collecting money for the construction of a new Cathedral. Once Bishop Hendricken had raised $30,000 he opened a temporary building, a pro-Cathedral on Broad Street in the garden of the Sisters of Mercy that could accommodate two thousand people when it was completed in 1876, and commenced with the demolition of the old cathedral and construction of the present structure. On Thanksgiving Day of 1878 a huge block of Kilkenny marble was laid as the cornerstone of the present Cathedral. When he died in 1886 the Cathedral, while yet unfinished, was opened for his funeral. The second bishop of Providence Most Rev. Matthew Harkins was consecrated in the Cathedral on 1887. Regular services in the Cathedral had begun in November of that year. When the work on the building was finally completed, the Cathedral was consecrated in Sunday, June 30, 1889. In 1968, the late Bishop Russell J. McVinney, in anticipation of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the diocese, initiated a massive renovation program under the direction of Rev. Msgr. William J. Carey, then the Cathedral rector. This renovation was designed to refurbish the Cathedral in line with the liturgical reforms of the second Vatican Council. The renovation process took more then three years to complete. Bishop McVinney died in August of 1971 before renovations where completed. Ironically, he like Bishop Hendricken, did not live to see his dream fulfilled.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
