PRAYER

FASTING

ALMSGIVING

Dear Parishioners:

Recently Bishop Tobin wrote a letter asking all people to take up prayers during this month for persecuted Christians. He wrote: "I invite all members of the Church to undertake some personal acts of prayer, sacrifice or charity for our suffering brothers and sisters. Perhaps you could dedicate the Lenten practices you have already begun to this specific intention. Perhaps you could undertake additional prayer, sacrifice or good works for this intention."

In this letter he reminds us of the plight of persecuted Christians in Iraq, Syria, Egypt, Libya, Nigeria and North Korea. In these places, and others, Christians have seen their churches and schools attacked and even destroyed. There are reports of personal attacks upon Christians who have been kidnapped, raped, tortured, crucified and beheaded. This is being done, Bishop Tobin reminds us, "precisely and solely because of their faith in Jesus Christ."

In light of this continued persecution, perhaps we can all take on some prayer and penance in solidarity with our suffering brothers and sisters. We might offer this prayer from the Roman Missal: "O God, who in your inscrutable providence will that the Church be united to the sufferings of your Son, grant, we pray, to your faithful who suffer for your name's sake, a spirit of patience and charity, that they may be found true and faithful witnesses to the promises you have made. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

On Tuesday we celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a solemn Mass at 12:05PM. St. Patrick lived in at time when enslavement, imprisonment and death for one's faith in Christ were not uncommon. We ask for his intercession and celebrate his bringing the Gospel of Christ to Ireland.

Fr. William O'Neill is our homilist at the St. Patrick's Day Mass. He is the Pastor of St. Mark's Church in Jamestown, and a native of Ireland. Our Mass is to feature Irish hymns, music and readings in the Irish language. We invite you to the Mass and the light reception of Irish Bread and coffee that follow.

On Thursday we mark the Solemnity of St. Joseph, the Patron of the Universal Church, with a Mass at 12:05PM in Italian, celebrated by Bishop Evans. Fr. David Procaccini, the Pastor of St. Francis de Sales, is our homilist. We invite you to join us for Mass and the reception of zeppoles and coffee to follow. The Mass features Italian hymns and readings.

Please join us for these parish celebrations of such great feast days. May Glorious St. Patrick intercede for us and our parish! May Good St. Joseph intercede for us and our parish! May they both intercede for persecuted Christians across the globe.

Next weekend we begin our Parish Lenten Mission with Fr. Michael Najim. Father serves as the Director of Spiritual Formation at Our Lady of Providence Seminary and Chaplain at LaSalle Academy.

He is to preach all the Masses next weekend and then next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night at 7:00PM preach a Mission Talk. Each night Confessions are to be heard beginning at 6:00PM with four priests available.

This Parish Mission is a great opportunity to take some time from our busy lives to focus on prayer and reflect on our faith. Fr. Najim is a dynamic preacher and I think you will truly enjoy this time of Mission with him.

I thank you for the generous response to the Blanket Drive for the Homeless. We collected nearly 200 new blankets for Emmanuel House. These blankets go to provide our homeless brothers and sisters some small measure of warmth during the winter season. Thank you for your generosity!

Also, I offer my continued thanks to those who have generously supported the Catholic Charity Appeal. We are moving toward our parish goal of $193,000. If you have not yet made your pledge, please do so today. In the name of the poor and needy I thank you for your support. God Bless. Remember Fridays are for fish and Stations of the Cross! Happy St. Patrick's Day and St. Joseph's Day!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors:
What do Catholics believe about evolution?

St. John Paul II explained: "In his encyclical Humani generis (1950), my predecessor Pius XII has already affirmed that there is no conflict between evolution and the doctrine of the faith regarding man and his vocation, provided that we do not lose sight of certain fixed points." That is to say, so long as one understands the findings of science and of Scripture correctly there is no conflict between faith and reason.

The first chapters of the Book of Genesis do not provide a newspaper-like account of the origins of man. They explain real historical events—the creation and fall of man—but often use figurative language (CCC 390). A detailed account of the biological origins of man are not provided in Sacred Scripture. For that reason, nothing molecular biology can discover can contradict revealed truth.

Microevolution—small changes over time within a species—is an observable reality and certainly does not contradict any truth of faith. Macroevolution from one species to another is a more complicated phenomenon about which there exists a variety of theories—from classical Darwinism to the theory of punctuated equilibrium. Each provides quite a distinct account of evolutionary change.

The "certain fixed points" about which John Paul II speaks would include: the uniqueness of man and his vocation; the rational, immortal human soul is not subject to evolution; the soul is infused by God at a particular point in time and thus there was a first human being. Any theory which would make God unnecessary or superfluous also contradicts right reason and the truths of faith.

The idea of Catholics blind to the truth of science is absurd. Equally absurd are philosophical extrapolations about the meaning of the universe or the place of man in creation which, while posited as science, are really theological claims without merit. The truth is it is often evolutionary biologists who overstep their bounds into philosophy. Faith and reason never contradict one another so long as one understands the kind of question one is asking.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

Outreach Update

- Thank you for your generous donation of 188 new blankets for the homeless!
- The OLM Bereavement Support Group meeting is Thursday, March 19 from 4:00pm to 6:00pm. In Mercy House. All are welcome to attend.
- Easter Dinner items are needed for our OLM Food Pantry. Thank you for your support.

FOR LENT FOR LIFE

WHAT YOU GIVE UP FOR LENT
CHANGES LIVES.

- OLM Students will be attending 12:05PM Mass during Lent.
- Stock Market Club: Mr. Austin Kairnes invites 7th and 8th grade students to participate in The Stock Market Club. The first go-round would be a four-week program in April and early May, after school from 2:45 to 3:45. The club is free of charge and will be available to the first 25 students that sign up. If interested, please email Mr. Kairnes at akairnes19@gmail.com
- Middle School Ski Trip: This year's Middle School ski trip will take place Friday, March 20th at Wachusett Mountain. The bus will leave OLM at 3pm and return at approximately 10:30pm.
- The Spring Fling is on Friday, May 1st at Quidnessett Country Club. For our new families, this is a festive social event and is the school's biggest fundraiser. We encourage first year families to become involved in this event—it's a great way to meet parents and connect with the OLM community. The funds raised at this event subsidize many of the school's extracurricular programs and educational enhancement initiatives.
- Kites for Kids: This week marks the beginning of "Kites for Kids". "Kites for Kids" is a pre-event fundraising initiative that was started a few years ago at OLM. The consistent generosity of families and businesses is remarkable. A few exciting elements have been added this year—watch for the flying kites to line the school walls and a few new locations around the school very soon! Details will come home in the white envelopes.
- Library Volunteer Opportunity: Calling all volunteers! Looking for a way to help out in the mornings at Our Lady of Mercy? We are currently in need of more volunteers to help us in the newly organized library at OLM between the hours of 8:00am-8:50am. Many time slots are available! If you wish to commit to a time slot weekly or bi-weekly, please contact Kimberly Izzi for details and times available at kimberlyizzi@gmail.com. Thank you for continuing to support OLM!

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
