Dear Parishioners:

We officially kick off the Annual Catholic Charity Appeal at Our Lady of Mercy this weekend. I am grateful to Mr. Kevin McDevitt for his leadership of this part of the Appeal. Many of you may have already received a mailing with a pledge card, if you have already made your pledge it will be credited to OLM.

Our Charity Appeal goal this year is $193,684, one of the highest in the Diocese. Last year we raised $227,860 with 632 parish families pledging their support. It is notable that there were over 100 first time contributors last year. I am confident that we can again surpass our goal and hopeful that more of our 2,200 parish families might support the good works of the Church.

The Catholic Charity Appeal funds the works of the Catholic Church here in Rhode Island and many social service agencies that provide assistance to the poor, the needy, the sick, the elderly, immigrants, and refugees. Your donations help feed and house the homeless at Emmanuel House, provide assistance for the elderly and poor at the St. Martin de Porres Center, provide the sacraments to prisoners at the ACI, aid the poor in affording heat in the cold winter months, and help refugee families find a place of freedom and welcome here in Rhode Island.

We are asking every parish family to prayerfully consider a pledge of $250 this year. Also, if you have never contributed to the Catholic Charity Drive, we encourage you to please to do so this year.

The Catholic Charity Appeal is the main source of support for our diocesan agencies providing for the physical, educational, and spiritual needs of Rhode Islanders each year. It is our responsibility to ensure that these agencies and programs have the resources available to help our brothers and sisters in need. Thank you for your generosity in supporting the good works of our Church.

It's hard to believe but this week we celebrate the feasts of St. Patrick and St. Joseph. On Monday we mark St. Patrick's Feast at the 12:05PM Mass. There will be Irish hymns, readings in Irish and Irish soda bread and coffee following the Mass. Our guest homilist is Fr. Nick Smith, one of our great Senior Priests and a native of Ireland. Please join us!

On Wednesday we mark the Solemnity of St. Joseph at the 12:05PM Mass. The Mass is to be celebrated by Bishop Evans in Italian. We will have Italian hymns, students from the Italian Club at Prout joining us and of course, those delicious zeppoles following Mass. (Since it's a solemnity it doesn't technically count as Lent!) Our guest homilist this year is Fr. Joseph "Giuseppe" Upton, the Prout Chaplain. So please join us for this celebration!

Soon the NCAA begins the "March Madness" as its basketball tournament is called.

We had a little of that "madness" last weekend as our OLM Basketball teams played in the CAL Tournament. Two of our teams, sixth grade boys and girls, were crowned State Champions and several others were runners up. Congratulations to them all on a great season!

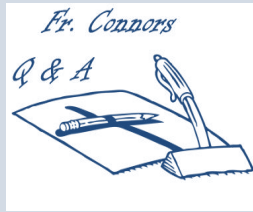

These celebrations in Lent might be a distraction for some. But not to worry, next weekend we begin our Annual Parish Mission with Fr. Mark Spalding serving as our Mission Preacher. This is our annual "retreat" as a parish where we can refocus, renew and refresh our faith. So mark your calendars now for the Mission. All the details are in this week's bulletin.

On Saturday afternoon we celebrated Confession for the RE Frist Communion Class and next Saturday we do the same for the OLM School Class. I ask your prayers for these children as they receive God's merciful forgiveness and grace for the first time in Confession. When did you last make a good Confession?

Last Sunday Pope Francis reminded us: "Lent is a favorable opportunity for all of us to make a journey of conversion, renew the promises of our Baptism, and renounce Satan and all his works and seductions in order to walk the paths of God and 'to arrive at Easter in the joy of the Holy Spirit.'" So pray, fast and give alms! Remember Fridays are for fish and the Stations of the Cross!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: Why does the Apostles' Creed say that after Jesus died, "He descended into hell"..... Why did He go there? Why isn't it mention in the Nicene Creed?

This is a great question especially as we prepare to celebrate the Holy Triduum at the end of Lent. This question is basically asking what exactly happened on Holy Saturday. Where did Jesus go before He rose from the dead?

The first thing is that He really died. There was some controversy in the early Church about whether in fact Jesus died. The fact that He "suffered death and was buried" as the Nicene Creed says shows that in fact He died. The Apostles Creed makes even more explicit, "He descended into Hell."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains, "In his human soul united to his divine person, the dead Christ went down to the realm of the dead. He opened heaven's gates for the just who had gone before him" (CCC 627). The First Letter of Peter says, "For this is why the gospel was preached even to the dead (1 Peter 4:6).

On Holy Saturday, after His death on the Cross, Jesus preached the Gospel to the righteous who were awaiting His coming. He freed the souls of the just who died awaiting a Savior. This is distinct from the Hell of the damned, those who died outside of God's friendship.

Our Lord's descent into Hell has traditionally been understood not so much as the experience of Hell—the separation from God the Father, which Jesus never had since He possessed the beatific vision—but as completing His messianic mission, preaching the Gospel even to those righteous who awaited His coming.

Benedict XVI beautifully explained: "The Lord's descent into Hell means that Jesus reaches even the past, that the effectiveness of the Redemption does not begin in the year 0 or 30, but also embraces the past, all men and women of all time."
