ALMSGIVING

Dear Parishioners:

Over the last two weeks we celebrated First Confession for our First Communion Class. For the very first time in their young lives nearly 100 of children of our parish experienced God's mercy and forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It was a great day for them and their families.

Also, at these celebrations we had four priests available to hear Confessions for the many adults present. It was truly an experience, deep faith has children, parents, grandparents and siblings celebrated God's mercy in Confession.

This week Confessions are to be heard Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night beginning at 6:00PM. Four priests are available each night to hear Confession before our Lenten Mission. Also, we continue to have Confession daily, Monday through Friday, from 11:45AM until Noon. Have you gone to Confession yet?

Pope Francis recently spoke to a group of priests about Confession. In an address he offered advice to the gathered priests about how to hear Confessions with true mercy and compassion. "Confession should not be a 'torture,'" the Pope said, "but everyone should leave the confessional with joy in his heart, his face beaming with hope," even if sometimes "wet with tears of conversion and the joy that comes from it."

We welcome Father Michael Najim to Our Lady of Mercy this weekend for the Lenten Mission. His theme is "The Simplicity of Holiness." Over the next few nights Fr. Najim explores this theme as he speaks to us about the theological virtues of faith, hope and love.

Father serves as the Chaplain at LaSalle Academy and the Director of Spiritual Formation at the Seminary of Our Lady of Providence. He is a dynamic preacher and I am sure you will enjoy his time with us this week. The Mission is our opportunity to take a "retreat" from our regular schedule and from our busy lives to put God at the forefront. As we "retreat" to pray, ponder and reflect we prepare ourselves to reenter our daily lives refreshed and renewed in the faith.

I am grateful to Fr. Najim for taking time from his busy schedule to be with us. He is to offer a Mission Talk at 7:00PM on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night. Also on Wednesday night exposition and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is to be offered. It is a great opportunity for our parish and I hope you are able to make it to the Mission.

Next week we begin Holy Week with the celebration of Palm Sunday. Palm branches are to be distributed and blessed at all Masses. At the 10:30AM Mass on Sunday, we are to gather outside for the Solemn Procession of Palms.

We mark Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and hear once again the gospel account of His Passion. With the celebration of Palm Sunday we begin the holiest week of the Church Year. A complete schedule of Masses, Confessions and Liturgies for Holy Week is available in the bulletin.

Also on Palm Sunday we take up the Rice Bowl Collection at all Masses. Those humble cardboard boxes we've been filling with coins over this Season of Lent serve an important purpose. They help us live out our Lenten call to give alms, but also provide much needed financial support to Catholic Relief Services. The money collected goes directly to buy food for the poorest and hungriest of our world.

I ask you to please count your collected coins in advance and instead make your donation with a check or cash bills. This makes it much easier for our volunteer counters on Monday morning. I thank you in advance for your generous support of this very important collection.

We continue to move toward meeting our parish goal for the Catholic Charity Appeal. I thank your for your support and urge those who have not had a chance to pledge their gift to please do so. With the support of all parishioners we can reach the goal of $193,000.

Welcome to OLM Father Najim! See you at the Mission this week. Remember Fridays are for fish and Stations of the Cross. God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: Is there any sin that cannot be forgiven?

In principle, no, any sin can be forgiven. However, we need to make some qualification. Our Lord explains in St. Matthew's Gospel that there is a way in which there is an unforgiveable sin, namely, blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. Our Lord says: "Therefore, I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven" (Mt 12:31). So what is He saying?

Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is traditionally understood to mean lack of belief in the mercy God brings. To sin against the Holy Spirit is to refuse God's free offer of mercy. It is to despair. So in this sense, the unforgiveable sin is the sin of refusing God's forgiveness.

In order then to modify our answer only slightly, no sin for which we seek forgiveness cannot be forgiven. However, the sin of refusing God's forgiveness—of rejecting His free offer of mercy—by its very nature cannot be forgiven.

Why then is this refusal to accept God's mercy called blasphemy against the Holy Spirit? Blasphemy is to speak against God. We speak against God, who is rich in mercy and always ready to forgive, when we refuse His forgiveness.

This happens concretely through a neglect of Confession. Think of how many people reject God's offer of mercy in the Sacrament of Penance. They neglect receiving God's mercy there. God awaits us in the Sacrament of mercy. In fact, His grace draws us there to be forgiven and restored to His friendship. The renewal of the Church begins in the confessional

The message is simple: those who seek God's forgiveness will be forgiven. However, to refuse to accept His mercy is a sin that of its very nature cannot be forgiven.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

Religious Education NEWS

- On Sunday March 22nd, ONLY Grades 1 and 2 have class in the AM. Grades 3-8 have Confessions immediately following the 5pm Mass on Sunday.

- All Grade 2 families are reminded that we will gather in the school cafeteria on Sunday, March 22nd at 10:00am to make the banners for First Communion. At least one adult needs to come with the student.

Outreach Update

- Easter Dinner items are needed for our OLM Food Pantry. Thank you for your support.

FOR LENT FOR LIFE

WHAT YOU GIVE UP FOR LENT
CHANGES LIVES.

Next weekend we take up the Rice Bowl Collection at all Palm Sunday Masses. This collection supports the good works of Catholic Relief Services across the globe in aiding the poor and hungry. Please make your returns in cash or check payable to OLM. No coins please.

Thank you for your generous support.

- OLM Students will be attending 12:05PM Mass during Lent.

- Stock Market Club: Mr. Austin Kairnes invites 7th and 8th grade students to participate in The Stock Market Club. The first go-round would be a four-week program in April and early May, after school from 2:45 to 3:45. The club is free of charge and will be available to the first 25 students that sign up. If interested, please email Mr. Kairnes at akairnes19@gmail.com

- The Spring Fling is on Friday, May 1st at Quidnessett Country Club. For our new families, this is a festive social event and is the school's biggest fundraiser. We encourage first year families to become involved in this event—it's a great way to meet parents and connect with the OLM community. The funds raised at this event subsidize many of the school's extracurricular programs and educational enhancement initiatives.

- Kites for Kids: This week marks the beginning of "Kites for Kids". "Kites for Kids" is a pre-event fundraising initiative that was started a few years ago at OLM. The consistent generosity of families and businesses is remarkable. A few exciting elements have been added this year—watch for the flying kites to line the school walls and a few new locations around the school very soon! Details will come home in the white envelopes.

- Library Volunteer Opportunity: Calling all volunteers! Looking for a way to help out in the mornings at Our Lady of Mercy? We are currently in need of more volunteers to help us in the newly organized library at OLM between the hours of 8:00am-8:50am. Many time slots are available! If you wish to commit to a time slot weekly or bi-weekly, please contact Kimberly Izzi for details and times available at kimberlyizzi@gmail.com. Thank you for continuing to support OLM!

Fr. Najim is to preach all the Masses during the weekend of March 21/22 at Our Lady of Mercy Church. He is to offer a Mission Talk each night, at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Confessions, with four priests available, are to be heard Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. On Wednesday night of the Mission, Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament are to be offered.

Father Michael J. Najim is a native of Westerly, Rhode Island. He received his B.A. in Theology from the Franciscan University of Steubenville. He studied for the priesthood at St. John's Seminary in Brighton, Massachusetts where he received a Master of Divinity Degree. He was ordained to the priesthood in June 2001 at the Cathedral of Saints Peter & Paul. He has served as Associate Pastor at St. Philip's Church in Greenville, RI and as Diocesan Director of Vocations. Father Najim was appointed Director of Spiritual Formation at the Seminary of Our Lady of Providence in 2012 and also continues to serve as Chaplain at La Salle Academy where he was first appointed in 2010. He is a well known Mission Preacher throughout the Diocese of Providence.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
