Dear Parishioners:

We had a beautiful celebration of First Communion last Saturday. Even the weather was beautiful! We congratulate our 95 First Communicants on receiving the Lord Jesus truly present in the Eucharist for the very first time. We hope and pray that this will be the start of a life-long love of the Eucharist!

On Sunday we celebrated Mothers' Day with the May Crowning at the 10:30AM Mass. It was so nice to see the Church full of First Communion Families, their guests and our parishioners celebrating together our Blessed Mother! We continue to celebrate our Blessed Mother Mary during this month of May on Mondays with Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the Rosary.

Last Monday at May Devotions Fr. Connors prayed for Harvard University which was scheduled to hold a "Black Mass." A "Black Mass" is a ritual performed as a religious travesty and mocking of the Catholic Mass by the followers of Satanism. This outrageous and offensive action was originally slated to be performed on the campus of Harvard but fortunately it was cancelled.

Unfortunately it was not cancelled by the Harvard Administration but by the organizers themselves after the outcry against it. Harvard President Drew Faust said the satanic Mass is "flagrantly disrespectful and inflammatory" but refused to cancel such an event on the campus because of "free speech."

One wonders if there was to be an offensive event that attacked, ridiculed and mocked African-Americans, followers of Judaism or Islam, or homosexuals she would have permitted it under the guise of "free speech." People may have "free speech" rights to spew hatred and evil but it doesn't have to be accepted and permitted at institutions of higher learning.

The great historian and advisor to President John Kennedy, Arthur Schlesinger, himself a graduate of Harvard, suggested: "Anti-Catholicism was the last acceptable prejudice." It appears that might be true at the nation's leading university. Sean Cardinal O'Malley, the Archbishop of Boston stated: "It's just very disappointing and disturbing. You know, there's a great fascination with evil in the world. It doesn't lead to anything good."

Let us continue to pray for those at Harvard and all over the world who mock and attack our Catholic Faith. Listen to Pope Francis: "Let us ask the Lord for the grace to take these things seriously. He came to fight for our salvation. He won against the devil! Please, let us not do business with the devil! He seeks to return home, to take possession of us. Do not relativize; be vigilant! And always with Jesus!"

Now that First Communion is over our Religious Education Program has ended for the year. I am truly grateful to Mickey St. Jean and Doug Green who did such a tremendous job leading the program this year. We thank all those who participated in our RE Program and especially thank the teachers who volunteer so much of their time and talent to teaching the Catholic Faith to the future of our Church and Parish.

There is a flyer in this week's bulletin introducing a new and exciting opportunity for the children of our parish. We are offering a Vacation Bible School at OLM in late June. We invite all children of the parish from Grade K through 6 to join us for this great week of fun and faith!

Our Summer Seminarian, Nicholas Robenhymer, arrives at OLM this week. He will be with us for a few weeks, living and working with Fr. Connors and I. He is from Narragansett and graduates from Providence College this weekend. He continues his priestly studies this fall at St. John's Seminary in Boston. When you see him around the parish or around town please be sure to give him your usual warm OLM welcome.

I hope you will join us on June 18th for a celebration of Sister Jeanne's many years of dedicated service to our school and parish. Details are in the bulletin this week so be sure to mark your calendar. Have a great week! Remember Mondays are for Mary! Welcome Nicholas! God Bless. Go Bruins??!!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: How many times may one receive Holy Communion a day?

The simple answer is twice. The Code of Canon Law states: "A person who has already received the Most Holy Eucharist can receive it a second time on the same day only within the Eucharistic celebration in which the person participates." That second part simply means that for one to receive Holy Communion a second time in a single day it should be at a Mass and not at a Communion service outside of Mass.

The reason for this norm is clear. We want to ever increase our amazement at the Holy Eucharist. Anything that could make reception of Holy Communion mere routine should be avoided.

Also, reception of Holy Communion forgives venial sins and strengthens against future sin. It makes sense to receive this grace each day, but a greater regularity—many times throughout the day for example—could lead to a certain quantification of the grace of the Holy Eucharist which could be confusing.

There may be cases in which one attends several Masses in a day, i.e. daily Mass, a wedding and funeral. However rare a case, this points to the fact that attendance at a particular Mass is not the only criteria for reception of Holy Communion.

For example, in addition to not receiving more than twice a day, prior to reception of Holy Communion, one should fast from food and drink for one hour. This helps to remind us of the significance of what—or really who—we are receiving.

Also, to receive Holy Communion one must be in a state of grace, that is, not conscious of any grave sin that has not been forgiven in the Sacrament of Penance. Grave sin includes failure to attend Holy Mass on a Sunday or Holy Day of Obligation when one is physically able to do so.

If you have a question on the Church and Her teachings for Fr. Connors send it to associatepastor@olmparish.org

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
