Dear Parishioners:

With nearly two million people attending in Rome and millions more watching on TV, Pope Francis made history last Sunday when he canonized two of his predecessors, Saint John XXIII and Saint John Paul II. Pope Francis was joined by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, for the beautiful Mass of Canonization. I hope you were able to see it on TV as it was truly an inspirational and historic event.

In his homily at the Mass, Pope Francis stated: "May these two new saints and shepherds of God's people intercede for the Church... May both of them teach us not to be scandalized by the wounds of Christ and to enter ever more deeply into the mystery of divine mercy, which always hopes and always forgives, because it always loves." Saint John XXIII and Saint John Paul II, pray for us!

We are fully immersed into the Easter Season and now look forward to the parish celebration of First Communion. Next Saturday the Second Grade Students of the OLM Religious Education Program and OLM School celebrate their First Communion. I ask you to please keep them in your prayers as they continue to prepare for this joyous and faith-filled occasion in their lives. First Communion is a great celebration in the life of our parish and a sign of the future for our Church.

Next Sunday, we also celebrate Mother's Day, and our First Communion Class is to celebrate the May Crowning of the Blessed Mother at the 10:30AM Mass. It's a wonderful way to celebrate Motherhood as we honor the Mother of God and of the Church. Also, Fr. Connors and I offer Masses on Mother's Day for all Mothers. We hope spring weather arrives soon for First Communion and Mother's Day!

Let's not forget that May is for Mary! I invite you to join us on Monday evenings at 7:00PM during the Month of May for Marian Devotions. Each Monday in May we expose the Blessed Sacrament, pray the Rosary and receive Benediction. I can't think of a better way to spend a half hour on Mondays, can you? See you at May Devotions!

While we continue to bask in the glory and joy of the Easter Season, let's remember how we got here. We spent forty days during Lent praying, fasting and giving alms. I am happy to report that your generous alms giving to the OLM Outreach Office helped us provide financial support and material aid to many people and agencies in need.

Over the winter months, the OLM Outreach Office has provided rental assistance and assistance with utilities to several local families. Also during Lent we collected $3,000 for Bishop Tobin's Keep the Heat On Fund which helps those struggling to keep their heat in the winter. We also donated $500 each to McAuley House, Emmanuel House, Whitmarsh House and the RI Coalition for the Homeless. In addition, we provided hundreds of bags of healthcare and hygiene products to the residents of Emmanuel House for the Homeless, New Hope Shelter for Women, and Breadlines, the weekly food distribution program for the homeless at Cathedral Square.

For Easter we provided nearly 50 Easter Baskets with food cards to area families in need. The Confirmation Class baked over 300 cupcakes for McAuley House's Easter Dinner and the Outreach Office provided 200 candy filled eggs for the McAuley House Easter Egg Hunt.

Almsgiving is alive and well at OLM! I've published in the bulletin this week some of the thank you letters we've received for our assistance. All of these good works and financial assistance efforts are a direct result of your generous support of the Monthly OLM Outreach Collection. Please know that all of the funds collected go directly to our OLM Outreach efforts locally and across the state. In the name of the poor, the needy and the homeless who benefit from your almsgiving, I offer thanks and gratitude for your generous charity and bountiful support.

Fr. Connors is back and this weekend we welcome him home from his well deserved vacation. Have a great week and pray the spring weather comes soon. Happy Easter! God Bless. Go Sox! Go Bruins!!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: You have said the teaching of the Church is the teaching of Christ. Must one accept everything the Church teaches?

The authentic teaching of the Church—as distinguished from simply the opinions of priests and bishops—should be received with loyal submission of intellect and will. Jesus tells His apostles—and through them the bishops, their successors—“he who hears you hears me” (Luke 10:16).

The Second Vatican Council explains: “[This] Sacred Council teaches that bishops by divine institution have succeeded to the place of the apostles, as shepherds of the Church, and he who hears them, hears Christ, and he who rejects them, rejects Christ and Him who sent Christ” (Lumen Gentium 20).

The Magisterium—the official teaching organ of the Catholic Church, from the Latin word magister or teacher—is a gift of Jesus to His Church. We are not left to ourselves to figure out the full truth about God. That wouldn’t make sense. Jesus wouldn’t come and then leave us orphans. He leaves Sacred Scripture and a teaching office in the Church to provide authentic interpretation.

The basic posture towards the Church’s teaching should be to receive it, to accept it, to submit to it. From time to time there will be questions: has that teaching been expressed as clearly as it could or isn’t there a bit more to say about it than that? Those clarifying questions however, all exist within the context of faith; of a faith that accepts Jesus at His word. He leaves the Church to speak for Him, to keep His teaching safe. The Magisterium must then be seen as a gift, a truth-giver and thus an aid to human freedom and human flourishing.

If you have a question on the Church and Her teachings for Fr. Connors send it to associatepastor@olmparish.org

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parishioners:
On behalf of all of us at McAuley Ministries, thank you for your generous donation. Gifts like yours enable us to fulfill our mission of providing the basic needs of food, clothing, shelter, health services, emotional support and guidance to the most vulnerable in our community. We couldn't do it without the help of our many wonderful volunteers and the generosity of donors.

Donald P. Wolfe
Executive Director-McAuley Ministries

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parishioners:
Thank you for your generous donation to the boys and young men who live in our homes here at Whitmarsh House. Your gift goes directly to our young people and helps fill the gaps where funds are lacking. Thank you for your support.

Brother John McHale, OLP
Executive Director—Whitmarsh House

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parishioners:
Thank you for the generous donation to "Keep the Heat On." While the weather warms up so do the number of calls from people facing utility shut-offs after the winter heating season. Your generosity allows us to help them.

John J. Barry III
Secretary for Catholic Charities & Social Ministry

Dear Fr. Healey & OLM Parishioners:
Please accept my thanks for your recent contribution of personal hygiene products for the guests of Emmanuel House. Please know that this generous donation goes to provide dignity to those staying at the shelter. Thanks for your support of Emmanuel House.

James R. Jahnz

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
