10:30 AM For All Deceased Mothers

Dear Parishioners:

I wish to thank OLM Parishioner Colin Tierney, a Junior at Bishop Hendricken High School, for including the parish in his efforts to help the victims of the Boston Terrorist Attacks. He was at the Boston Marathon and inspired to react. So he created and designed wristbands with the Holy Father's words to the City of Boston, "Combat evil with good." What a great way to react to the tragedy with faith and hope! I'm happy to report that he raised $750 selling these wristbands after Mass at OLM for the One Boston Fund.

The horrific tragedy in Boston continues to play out in the news media and seems to gain more connections to little Rhode Island everyday. We can only respond with faith, hope and love. In a world too full of fear, hate, violence and war, perhaps we might pray for the many victims of violence and hatred as well as their families who suffer with them. Let us not only pray but let us truly work to "combat evil with good!"

We are looking forward to the celebration of First Communion next weekend. What a happy day for our parish children as they receive the Lord Jesus in the Eucharist for the very first time. Let us pray for them as they continue to prepare for this great day in their young lives.

Several years ago Benedict, Pope Emeritus, meet with a group of children who recently made their First Holy Communion. He reflected about his own First Communion and said: "So on that day I was really filled with great joy, because Jesus came to me and I realized that a new stage in my life was beginning, I was 9 years old, and that it was henceforth important to stay faithful to that encounter, to that communion. I promised the Lord as best I could: 'I always want to stay with you', and I prayed to him, 'but above all, stay with me'. So I went on living my life like that; thanks be to God, the Lord has always taken me by the hand and guided me, even in difficult situations."

I too remember my First Communion Day at St. Paul's in Cranston. My older brothers served the Mass and I received the Eucharist from Father Raymond Rafferty, then the Assistant Pastor. Afterwards the whole Healey Family went to IHOP! It was a great day and I hope and pray that our OLM First Communion Class will also always remember their special day when they receive the Eucharistic Lord for the first time.

Of course, next Sunday is Mothers' Day, so we will be praying for all mothers, living and deceased. The First Communion Class will celebrate Mothers' Day in fine fashion with the May Crowning at next Sunday's 10:30AM Mass. What a great way to celebrate Mothers' Day by crowning Mary, the Mother of the Church and Queen of the May!

Father Shemek and I will remember all Mothers at the Masses on Mothers' Day as we call upon the intercession of our Mother, Our Lady of Mercy.

During his reflection at a recent Wednesday Audience Pope Francis departed from his official text to say, "Mothers, go forth with this witness to the living Christ." He was referring to the fact that women were the first messengers of the risen Christ when Mary Magdalene took the good news of the resurrection to the disciples. Pope Francis is urging mothers everywhere to be the messengers of the risen Christ to their families most especially their children. Let us pray that Mothers continue to bear witness to the living Christ especially to their children!

It's hard to believe that one year has passed since we learned of Monsignor Lolio's untimely death. Without a doubt his family, friends and many parishioners continue to grieve the loss of such a fine priest and pastor. I invite all parishioners to join us for a special First Anniversary Mass in memory of Monsignor Lolio on Monday morning at 9:00AM. Bishop Evans is to celebrate and preach the Mass that will include the children from our parish school. As a former Catholic high school teacher Monsignor Lolio was always very dedicated to Catholic Education. Thanks to his generosity we now have a OLM School Scholarship Fund in his memory. Let us continue to pray for the repose of his noble soul. God Bless.

Father Healey

The Catechism Corner

This week we have to have the answer to the question, "Who EXACTLY rose Jesus from the dead??" because this week's Sacrament to be considered is the Anointing of the Sick. If there was anything that Christ was known for in His earthly life it was the healing of the sick. So He must be chiefly responsible for this Sacrament and therefore prove to us that He is the one who raised Himself from the dead. Now we just have to hope that the Catechism of the Catholic Church agrees with us. It looks like we're going to run into the same problem that we did with the other Sacraments so far. While it is true that Christ worked many miracles of healing throughout His life, the Anointing of the Sick is not His work alone. "The first grace of the this sacrament is one of strengthening, peace and courage to overcome the difficulties that go with the condition of serious illness or the frailty of old age. This grace is a gift of the Holy Spirit, who renews trust and faith in God and strengthens against the temptations of the evil one, the temptation to discouragement and anguish in the face of death." But it is not just the work of the Holy Spirit though because "[b]y the grace of this sacrament the sick person persons receives the strength and the gift of uniting himself more closely to Christ's Passion: in a certain way he is consecrated to bear fruit by configuration to the Savior's redemptive Passion." And just so that the Father doesn't feel left out, the Anointing of the Sick being "the last anointing fortifies the end of our earthly life like a solid rampart for the final struggles before entering the Father's house." That seems to bring the score up to: Father -- 5; Son -- 5; Holy Spirit -- 5. Maybe we'll have better luck next week as we look at Matrimony and the role of the Trinity. Just to assure you that this is not all made up you can always check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #1520-1523.
