Dear Parishioners:

The strong winds of All Saints Day were so powerful they blew down our parish sign! The posts snapped and the sign just toppled over last Friday during a period of high winds. The wood sign has deteriorated over the years since it was first donated and so we are looking to see if it can be properly repaired or has to be replaced. In any case it will have to be updated to reflect the new Mass times at OLM.

I've received lots of compliments about our newly renovated Church bathrooms. If you have not yet had a chance to see them, please take peek as I think you will be pleased. I am grateful to OLM Parishioner Peter Walsh of Professional Remodeling who did the work on this project and has provided us with two modern bathrooms.

These are just a few of the projects that we've undertaken in the last few months. We are tidying up the vestibule, cry room and hope to reorganize the sacristy in the coming weeks. Our maintenance staff have been working very hard to keep the Church clean and neat.

However, we all need to do our part to keep God's house clean. Every Sunday I walk through Church after each Mass and routinely have to pick up dirty tissues, bulletins, and other assorted trash people leave callously in the pews or on the floor. It boggles my mind that anyone would treat their Parish Church, God's House, in such a way.

I'm sure it is the result of bad habits left unchecked but it's time for all of us to do our part. Our maintenance staff strive to keep the pews clean, the floors neat, and the hymnals in order. So I ask you to please dispose of your dirty tissues and other trash in the trash can. Also, put the kneeler back up for the next person to use the pew and return the hymnals properly in their racks. The hymnals cost $10,000 and we need them to last for some time!

I thank you for your consideration and concern in keeping the House of God as clean and neat as it should be. If you are not responsible for the trash, kneelers down or hymnals strewn about the pew, please clean it up anyway! If we all do our part, and more, then our beautiful Parish Church will continue to maintain her dignity and beauty!

Now that Daylight Saving Time has begun we are attempting to regulate the timing of our lights and also determine where we might need additional lighting. If you notice a light out or the need for extra lightening in or around the Church area please let us know. Our Church is beautiful and we can take pride in her. Let's keep her well lit so all of our neighbors can see her beauty too!

Speaking of beauty it has come to my attention that the flag has not been flying over our school! Sister Jeanne tells me this is due in large part because of the lack of trained students to raise the flag each morning. We hope to remedy this by training some of our middle school students and soon Old Glory can fly high again! We hope to obtain some new flags but if you would like to donate a flag to the school in memory of a loved one, please let us know.

Veterans' Day is Monday and we remember all those men and women who have defended our flag through their service in the military. It is a day to pause, pray, and give thanks for the many veterans both living and deceased who fought to defend our freedom and liberty.

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, an armistice was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in the First World War, then known as "the Great War." Commemorated as Armistice Day beginning the following year, November 11th became a legal federal holiday in the United States in 1938 and would become known as Veterans Day. Let us pray for all veterans and for all those who serve in our military services.

I am away this weekend at the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Annual Winter Meeting in Baltimore where I serve on the Defense of Marriage Committee. Please continue to pray for the beloved dead of this parish during this All Souls Month. Happy Veterans Day! God Bless. Go Pats!! Have a great week!

Father Healey

The Catechism Corner

Why is it that we need heroes?? What is it about them that makes us want to have them?? In all ages of mankind there have been certain men and women that have been held up as examples of how to achieve greatness. In our own country, for example, we praise George Washington's honesty, Benjamin Franklin's diplomacy, and Samuel Adams' taste for good beer [that's a joke!] But the truth is that we all have heroes and they do, in fact, do something for us--they spur us on to victory--they remind us that we too can have the gifts that they had and, on some days, we really need to recall that!! Life is difficult and having heroes allows us to remember that others have made it through the same difficulties--if not worse! Because the Church always provides for our natural needs as well as our supernatural ones, enter the saints. They are our "holy heroes," aren't they?? Don't they stand before us and remind us that the Christian life can be lived in all of its fullness and beauty?? That is why the Church canonizes saints--to help us become saints! "By canonizing some of the faithful, i.e., by solemnly proclaiming that they practiced heroic virtue and lived in fidelity to God's grace, the Church recognizes the power of the Spirit of holiness within her and sustains the hope of believers by proposing the saints to them as models and intercessors." Pope John Paul II was acutely aware of our need for these "holy heroes." In his pontificate he canonized 280 saints! It is no wonder that he said that "The saints have always been the source and origin of renewal in the most difficult moments in the Church's history." Having all of these saints as our "holy heroes" AND, even more importantly, having these saints praying for us, makes us all the more aware of our need of personal holiness and the possibility for it in our lives! In other words, if the saints have "made it" then so can we! Check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #828.
