Dear Parishioners:

The images of the death and destruction of Typhoon Haiyan in the devastated parts of the Philippines are shocking. The news media have provided countless scenes of those still suffering with limited shelter, food and water. Certainly our thoughts and prayers continue for the victims of the Super Typhoon.

Last Sunday, during his weekly Angelus message, Pope Francis expressed his solidarity and pledged his support to the victims. He also led prayers for people hit by the deadly typhoon in the Philippines and surrounding region, and asked that concrete aid be sent soon. Pope Francis said: "I wish to express my closeness to the people of the Philippines and that region that has been hit by a terrible typhoon. Unfortunately the victims are many and the damage is enormous."

He asked the tens of thousands of people gathered in St. Peter's square to join him in a moment of silent prayer "for these brothers and sisters and let's try also to make our concrete help reach them." In response to the tragedy, Pope Francis made an initial donation of $150,000 for the relief efforts through the Pontifical Council Cor Unum.

Let us continue to pray for our brothers and sisters in the Philippines. If you would also like to help the relief effort, I encourage you to donate directly to the Catholic Relief Services in support of their relief work. This week's bulletin contains the address, phone number and website to which you can directly donate to help the victims.

Catholic Relief Services has for seventy years faithfully provided relief efforts for the poor, vulnerable and suffering for the U.S. Bishops and American Catholic Church. They do great work in the name of Christ for the suffering across the globe. Keep praying for those suffering from the typhoon.

Of course there are also needs in our own area for those who suffer in poverty and want. Any donations you make to the Monthly Outreach Collection at OLM during November and December will help purchase food for the hungry at Thanksgiving and simple gifts like warm hats and gloves for the needy at Christmas.

Your support of the Outreach Collection is a great sign of your love of the poor and needy. Over the last months we have continue to support the good works of McAuley House, Emmanuel House, and Whitmarsh House with donations of $1,000. Also, your donations to Outreach continue to support our efforts to help the economically struggling in our own area pay utility bills, purchase food and afford costly prescriptions.

The food items donated weekly in the large food bin in the vestibule is in urgent need as more and more seem to be struggling to make ends meet in this tough economy. Be assured your donations are put to good use and are in great need. In the name of the poor and needy you so generously and lovingly support, I offer my thanks and deep gratitude.

The tremendous amount of good work by the Catholic Church for the poor and needy is really an untold story in the news media. From parishes like ours to the homeless shelters and food pantries across the globe as well as the work of the major aid agencies like Catholic Relief Services and Cor Unum, we as Catholics can take great pride in our commitment to help serve the poor regardless of their race, nationality or religion.

It reminds me of the wonderful words of Pope Benedict XVI: "Within the community of believers there can never be room for a poverty that denies anyone what is needed for a dignified life." While it is usually during the upcoming "holiday" season that many in our society become more aware of those in need, the charity offered year-round by the parishioners of OLM is truly a great witness to the Gospel. It is something we can all be proud of as "the community of believers" at OLM.

Next week we celebrate the great solemnity of Christ the King as the Church Year ends and we prepare for Advent. Thanksgiving Day is coming soon too. Let us give all thanks and praise to Christ our King, long may He reign in our parish, in our homes and in our hearts!!

The Catechism Corner

There are many things about our Catholic Faith that just make plain GOOD sense! One of them is the Sunday obligation to attend Mass and to observe a holy day of rest. This obligation keeps the Lord before us (at least for one hour a week!) but it also reminds us of our obligations in other areas of our lives.

“The institution of the Lord’s Day helps everyone enjoy adequate rest and leisure to cultivate their familial, cultural, social, and religious lives.” Some people never take vacations unless they have to—especially if they are going to lose their unused vacation days! The Lord has given us a unique reminder of a similar truth in the celebration of Sunday. While the day should always be especially devoted to the Lord, it is also dedicated to our families and healthy recreation. “On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are to refrain from engaging in work or activities that hinder the worship owed to God, the joy proper to the Lord’s Day, the performance of the works of mercy, and the appropriate relaxation of mind and body.” The Church fully understands that some people need to work on a Sunday to support themselves and their families but at the same time if more of us spent that day with our families would the stores and restaurants still be open? Before planning the rest of THIS Sunday, first check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #2184-2185

Help Typhoon Victims Donate to Catholic Relief Services

Super Typhoon Haiyan, the equivalent of a Category 5 hurricane with sustained winds of 195 miles per hour, slammed into the Philippines on the island of Samar the evening of November 7, 2013, and hit Vietnam on Sunday, November 9. The storm has killed an estimated 10,000 people, and local officials report approximately 9.5 million people have been affected. Catholic Relief Services, in cooperation with our partners, will provide 100,000 families with shelter, essential living supplies, and clean water and sanitation. We will continue to identify the most vulnerable communities that need assistance. CRS desperately needs your help so we can reach people and communities in desperate need—now and as they rebuild their lives. To donate please mail your check or money order to: Catholic Relief Services P.O.
