Dear Parishioners:

We know the story of Thanksgiving very well. In fact, we learn it in school at an early age. But sometimes we need to remind ourselves of its importance. This is especially true as its significance is lessened in our culture and the day itself is cheapened with the crass commercialism of holiday sales and Black Friday bargains. Sadly it seems Thanksgiving Day has become merely another day to shop rather than give thanks to God!

But, we must remember that in the autumn of 1621 after a rich harvest, the men, women and children who had survived that first year in the New World gathered for a feast to offer thanks. One of those pilgrims wrote at the time: "By the goodness of God, we are so far from want."

What was that First Thanksgiving Day like? Well it was not necessarily about turkey and pumpkin pie. Historians think the pilgrims and their guests probably ate fowl and venison not turkey. And the food was probably a lot fattier than we are used to as cholesterol was unheard of. They were more worried about plague and the pox than about heart attacks!

They didn't have much sugar, so sweets and deserts were probably not on the menu. So, forget the pumpkin pie! The First Thanksgiving Meal left us with an enduring and venerable tradition: a gathering around a table with family, friends and guests, giving thanks to God for surviving in an uncertain and difficult new place.

Maybe, it has been suggested, the pilgrims weren't thankful because they had survived. But, maybe they had survived precisely because they were thankful and grateful to God.

After all, the pilgrims were a people who lived their lives in faith and hope. They were grateful for everything: the hard winds and deep snows, the frightening evenings and hopeful mornings, the long journey that had taken them to a new place. They certainly knew how to express their gratitude to God.

But, we know that gratitude doesn't always come so easily. We know that generosity - the giving of a gift - means thinking more about others than about ourselves. It represents an act of love. But so does being thankful and grateful. To give thanks is to extend ourselves and to truly remember where the gift came from.

This may be what helped the pilgrims to thrive and prosper: a humble appreciation for whatever God gave them and trusting that God would give them what they would need to survive. Theirs was an optimistic spirit with a grateful message.

Maybe this kind of spirit can teach us something today as we endure our own hard winds, deep snows, and attempt to survive the storms of our own lives. Maybe we can understand that to survive we need to be thankful!

On Thanksgiving Day wherever we find ourselves let us stop to offer Grace and gratitude. The grace of thanking God for whatever gift He gives us. Thanks for what we have, and thanks for what we have been given. On Thanksgiving Day may we show our deep love for the God who so generously gives it. Because like the pilgrims of old, no matter how fierce the winds, or how unforgiving the storm, we need to remember that God is always near.

I invite you to join us for Mass at 9:00AM on Thanksgiving Day as we gather to give thanks and praise to Almighty God. Bishop Evans is to celebrate the Mass and we are to be joined by a small delegation of young Pilgrims and Indians. There is no better way to prayerfully offer thanks to God than celebrating Mass together as a Parish Family!

I wish to thank the parishioners who spoke at Masses last weekend. They are taking the lead in our Increased Giving Campaign. As I have said, this is a very low-key mail campaign. We are simply asking every parishioner to consider their level of support for the parish. Thank you for your support!

I wish you and your loved ones a Happy Thanksgiving. May God Bless and protect you and may your travels be safe. Enjoy the holiday! God Bless. Go Pats, Go Gray!!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: Why do we use incense at Mass?

Incense symbolizes our prayers rising up to Heaven. It can be used at Mass and other liturgical prayers, such as Vespers or Benediction, in order to increase the solemnity of the celebration.

In Psalm 141 we hear: “Let my prayer come like incense before you; the lifting up of my hands, like the evening sacrifice.” From ancient times, people have used incense in liturgical prayer.

The use of incense helps us understand that we pray with our whole person, body and soul. Hearing beautiful music, experiencing the sweet smell of incense, hearing the bells at the consecration, all add to our experience of the sacred liturgy. The worship of God is not just up in the mind or a purely spiritual experience. The human being—body and soul—is called to worship God. The so-called “smells and bells” help us to do that.

According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, which governs how the Mass is celebrated, incense may be used at several different times. It may be used at the beginning of Mass to incense the altar, at the proclamation of the Gospel, at the offertory in which the gifts, crucifix, altar, priest and people may be incensed, and at the elevation of the sacred host and precious blood at the consecration. It also may be used in the entrance procession and the recessional at the conclusion of Mass.

Incense is also often used at a funeral Mass to incense the body of the deceased, symbolizing our prayers for the person that has died that he or she will rise body and soul to Heaven.

Precisely when incense is used is at the discretion of the priest celebrant. Use of incense adds to the solemnity of the Mass providing a dignified and beautiful celebration of the sacred liturgy. While incense could be used at every Mass, it makes sense to have degrees of solemnity, i.e. Sundays more than Mass during the week, great solemnities more than simple feasts, etc.

Tax Savings & Gift Giving

Many people enjoy using Christmas time as a time to make special gifts to charities. Why not consider including Our Lady of Mercy Church in your Christmas giving plans? Not only will your gift accomplish much good here at the parish, but a year-end gift may also provide you with additional tax savings. Appreciated stock may prove the best option for making a year-end gift to the parish. With a donation of qualifying appreciated stock, you can: 1) receive a charitable tax deduction based on the fair market value of the stock on the date of the donation, 2) avoid paying any capital gains tax on the stock, and 3) make a significant donation without affecting your checking or savings accounts. Stock must be transferred before the end of December to qualify for a 2014 tax benefit. For more information, speak with your broker or OLM Parish Business Manager Dave Cote at 401-884-4968.
