Dear Parishioners:

What a tremendous turn out we had for our "Helping Hands" Event for Catholic Relief Services and End Hunger Now. A couple of hundred parishioners of every age came to the OLM School Gym to help pack meals for the poor and hungry in West Africa. An assembly line of these volunteers packed 20,000 meals in just an hour and half!

I wish to thank Dudley and Kathy Bennett who helped to organize this great event for our parish. All of the meal packages are to be sent to West Africa where each can provide six meals. I am grateful for the many people from our parish and school who volunteered to put mercy in action at OLM. In the name of the poor and hungry, I thank all those who contributed so generously to this OLM Outreach effort.

Enclosed in the bulletin this week is the Annual Parish Financial Report, which was approved by the Finance Committee, and sent to Bishop Tobin last month. I wish it were a more positive report but unfortunately due to a large drop in enrollment at our parish school last year, and a major increase in healthcare costs, we ran a deficit of $100,000.

On the positive side our income has remained consistent and some of our expenses last year were one time expenditures. The Annual Collection was strong last year and helped pay for one time projects. I am grateful to our Parish Finance Committee and Parish Auditors for helping with this report. Their guidance and advice are helpful in securing the future of our parish financially and fiscally. I hope you are able to review the enclosed report in the coming week.

Also sent to the Bishop with the Annual Financial Report is the Status Animarium Report. This report is about "the status of the souls" in the parish. This report includes the census of the parish and the number of people receiving the sacraments over the year from September 2013 through September 2014.

We presently have 2,245 registered families at Our Lady of Mercy. There are 375 students in our parish school and 400 students are registered in our Religious Education Program.

We baptized 50 new Catholics this year and received 4 adults into the Catholic Church. This is an increase from last year's 40 baptisms. This year 83 children received First Holy Communion and 93 young adults received the Sacrament of Confirmation. These are great signs of growth and vitality for our parish.

We don't track the number of Confessions but we know that 83 First Communion Candidates went to First Confession and we estimate that nearly 30 people come to Confession a week. We offer Confessions on Saturdays at 3:00PM and Mondays at 6:00PM.

We had only 4 weddings this year and that is a sharp decrease from the previous year's

12 weddings. The number of weddings both in churches and even civilly are down across the country. Many young people are choosing to either not get married and cohabitate before ever getting married. In other cases many Catholics choose to get married outside the Church with the increased popularity of "destination weddings."

We administered the Sacrament of the Sick to over 100 people this year. This includes people at Kent Hospital where Fr. Connors and I cover two days a month. And sadly we celebrated 46 funerals this year as we commended to God these faithful souls.

Again, I would remind you that if someone is sick at home or hospitalized to please call the Parish Office to let us know. Due to privacy laws we are not notified when parishioners are hospitalized. We are happy to visit and offer the Sacrament of the Sick. If you know of someone who is homebound we can also arrange for them to regularly receive Holy Communion.

I am away this weekend attending the Annual Winter Meeting of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops where I serve as a consultant to the Marriage Committee. Let us continue to pray for the souls of the faithful departed during this All Souls Month of November. The Pats are off this week but what a game last week. God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: Why wasn't All Saints Day a Holy Day of Obligation this year?

November 1st is always celebrated as a Solemnity in the Church's calendar. It is an important celebration, honoring all those already in Heaven whether canonized by the Church or not. This wonderful feast highlights the goal of our life—eternal union with God in Heaven.

Ordinarily, All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation. Catholics are ordinarily obliged to attend Mass on that day. It is a serious sin to refuse to worship God by attendance at Holy Mass on obligatory Holy Days. Just like failing to attend Mass on a Sunday (presuming one is not impeded by illness or some other grave reason), it is a grave sin and one should not receive Holy Communion until first receiving the Sacrament of Penance.

However, when All Saints Day falls on a Monday or a Saturday (like it did this year) the bishops of the United States have declared that it is not an obligatory Holy Day. That is, Catholics are NOT required to attend Holy Mass. The bishops have chosen to lighten the burden on Catholics when the Holy Day falls on a Saturday or Monday in order not to require them to attend Mass on both the Holy Day and the Sunday.

Particularly in rural areas where priests and faithful often have to drive long distances to attend Mass this could be a significant burden. Only on Christmas and the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary (the patroness of the United States) do the American bishops still require attendance at Holy Mass even if the Holy Day falls on Saturday or Monday.

While some could see a certain legalism in these distinctions the reality is much deeper. We are created to worship God. The Church, established by Jesus, specifies the form of that worship. Several times throughout the year (in addition to Sundays) attendance at Mass is required to give shape to our common worship. In order not to overly burden the Catholic faithful the bishops have decided to lighten certain obligations as they did with the All Saints Day this year.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
