Dear Parishioners:

We had a great celebration last Sunday night as 93 of our young parishioners were confirmed by Bishop Evans. The Confirmation Mass was solemn and beautiful and I offer thanks to the many who worked so hard to make it a wonderful celebration. In special way, we thank Bishop Evans for his presence and ministry at our parish, the Choir and musicians for adding such beauty to the celebration, and the ushers who did a great job helping our many visitors to OLM.

I also wish to thank our Religious Education Staff especially Mickey St. Jean and Doug Green who helped to plan and prepare the candidates for this important day. We also thank the many teachers who taught the candidates over the years about Christ and His Church. They along with their parents who guide them in the ways of the faith are to be commended.

Finally, we thank the 93 newly confirmed for staying the course and committing to Christ as young adults. They have done so in a very public and communal way and that is most commendable. The parish celebration of Confirmation gives the candidates strength in their faith and our parish and Church hope for the future.

Now these newly confirmed must continue to grow in the faith and guide their lives by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. I ask you to continue to pray for them that they will stay close to Christ and His Church and bear witness to the Lord in their lives. In the coming weeks, Fr. Connors and I will be sending each of them a letter inviting them to take up a ministry here at OLM and we hope they will consider serving God and their parish as Confirmed Catholics!

Pope Francis confirmed young adults last April at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. In his homily, he encouraged the newly confirmed and his words are worth reflecting upon by all of us but most especially by the young people of our parish.

Pope Francis states: "And here I come to my last point. It is an invitation which I make to you, young confirmandi, and to all present. Remain steadfast in the journey of faith, with firm hope in the Lord. This is the secret of our journey! He gives us the courage to swim against the tide. Pay attention, my young friends: to go against the current; this is good for the heart, but we need courage to swim against the tide. Jesus gives us this courage!

There are no difficulties, trials or misunderstandings to fear, provided we remain united to God as branches to the vine, provided we do not lose our friendship with him, provided we make ever more room for him in our lives. This is especially so whenever we feel poor, weak and sinful, because God grants strength to our weakness, riches to our poverty, conversion and forgiveness to our sinfulness.

The Lord is so rich in mercy: every time, if we go to him, he forgives us. Let us trust in God's work! With him we can do great things; he will give us the joy of being his disciples, his witnesses. Commit yourselves to great ideals, to the most important things. We Christians were not chosen by the Lord for little things; push onwards toward the highest principles. Stake your lives on noble ideals, my dear young people."

It was great to see quite a few people take advantage of our new Monday night Confessions. We hope that this addition to our OLM Schedule provides a more convenient day and time to get to Confession. Consider what Pope Francis has said about Confession: "Humility and kindness are the framework of a Christian life. Oftentimes we think that going to confession is like going to the dry cleaners to get out a stain, but it isn't. It's an encounter with Jesus who waits for us to forgive us and offer salvation."

We had a pretty good crowd for our first Monday of October Devotions. If you couldn't make it, consider coming this Monday. We gather before the Eucharist, listen to a short talk, pray the Rosary and adore the Lord. Can you think of something better to do on a Monday night?

Have a Happy Columbus Day! God Bless. Go Pats! Go Sox?!! Remember Mondays are for Mary!

Father Healey

The Catechism Corner

Where does all of our time go? Time seems just to fly by--day by day, week by week, month by month. We look back and can't imagine how quickly it all has passed. The cause of this common feeling is really the "busy-ness" of the world around us. "Busy-ness" leaves us without time to reflect--to meditate--to ponder--the deeper meaning of the events in our lives. That's why they seem to just fly by--we hardly know they're happening in the first place! What effect though does all of this have on us? Well, the human spirit is one that truly is capable of meeting great demands when pushed to its limits. At the same time though, the human spirit craves reflection, quiet, and sometimes even solitude. We need to slow down and think about things in a prayerful and ponderous way in order to be truly successful. One way that the Church suggests for surviving in the middle of all this "busy-ness" is by praying the simple prayers of the Rosary. "Meditation engages thought, imagination, emotion, and desire. This mobilization of faculties is necessary in order to deepen our convictions of faith, prompt the conversion of our heart, and strengthen our will to follow Christ. Christian prayer tries above all to meditate on the mysteries of Christ, as in lectio divina or the rosary." What the Rosary enables us to do is to step back from our own lives and step into the lives of Christ and of His Blessed Mother. We begin to put our own life into focus as we come to understand theirs. We slow down and begin to reflect on the deeper mysteries of their lives so that our own life won't be so much of a mystery! Before you slow down too much though, first check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #2708.
