5:00PM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy

Dear Parishioners:

We celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend for 100 young people of our parish. These students have been studying over the last year at RE Classes and have taken a Retreat in preparation of this milestone in their faith lives.

On Monday night they came to October Devotions where Father Chris Murphy, the Chaplain at Bishop Hendricken High School, spoke to them about the importance of Confirmation in their lives. They also had the chance to receive God's mercy and forgiveness in the Sacrament of Confession. I ask you to please pray for these young people that they may continue to stay close to Christ and His Church in the years ahead.

We welcome Bishop John G. Noonan, the Bishop of Orlando, to Our Lady of Mercy for the celebration of Confirmation. I first met Bishop Noonan when he was the Rector of the St. John Vianney Seminary College in Miami where two of my priesthood classmates teach philosophy.

A few years ago when he was then the Auxiliary Bishop of Miami he visited my last parish in Albion for the celebration of Confirmation. It was that very weekend in October 2010 that he was appointed the Bishop of Orlando, Florida.

He is a native of Limerick, Ireland and studied for the priesthood in Florida. He is a priest of the Archdiocese of Miami where he has served as a parish priest, high school principal, and seminary rector. His Episcopal motto "God before me and God with me" originates in Exodus when Moses was leading the chosen people out of slavery and into the Promised Land. That same prayer was spoken by St. Patrick as he preached the Gospel in Ireland.

Confirmation is an important event in the life of our parish and I am grateful to Bishop Noonan for taking the time from his busy schedule and the warm weather of sunny Florida to be with us. We also offer our gratitude to the newly confirmed young people of Our Lady of Mercy for their commitment to the faith. In your name, I offer our congratulations and prayerful best wishes to them all.

Daylight savings time ends next Sunday, November 2nd at 2:00AM as our clocks fall back one hour. Our 5:00PM Saturday evening Mass moves to 4:00PM beginning next Saturday. This also means that Confessions on Saturday afternoon move to 3:00PM beginning next Saturday.

Next weekend we also celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on Saturday. It is a feast that honors the saints both known and unknown, the obscure as well as the famous. This year it is not a Holy Day of Obligation because it falls on a Saturday. Therefore, the only All Saints Mass to be offered is Saturday at 8:30AM.

During November we are called to remember in a special way "our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection."

The Feast of All Souls, a day in which we remember all the faithful departed, falls on a Sunday this year. So next Sunday, November 2nd we remember in particular all the Our Lady of Mercy parishioners who have died since last November. Their families have been invited to join us at the 10:30AM Mass as their deceased loved ones are remembered. Following the Mass we are to process to St. Patrick's Cemetery to pray for the faithful departed who rest in that sacred ground.

The Church has encouraged prayer for the dead from the earliest times as an act of Christian charity. "If we had no care for the dead," Saint Augustine noted, "we would not be in the habit of praying for them." I encourage you to pray for all the dead during the Month of November. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

I hope you can join us next Saturday night in the OLM School Gym following the 4:00PM Mass for our OLM Outreach "Helping Hands" Event for Catholic Relief Services. It is a great way for all parishioners to celebrate All Saints as we strive to be saints!

Again we say congratulations to the newly confirmed of OLM! Also we thank Bishop Noonan for being with us for this special day. Have a great week. God Bless. Go Pats!

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors:
Why do you have to go to a priest for Confession ?

The simple answer is because that is how Jesus established it. Confession was instituted by Christ to forgive grave sins committed after Baptism. He entrusted this ministry to his apostles who were his first priests and bishops of the Church.

As we read in St. John's Gospel: "Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (John 20:23).

Through Sacrament of Holy Orders, the priest links us back to Christ and thus has the power that comes from Christ to forgive sins. He is an instrument of the Church, from whom our sin has separated us. The priest, weak and humble instrument though he is, configured to Christ in ordination, is the only one who forgives effectively in Christ's name.

Going to confession means we understand the Church. We are not alone on the journey but inextricably tied to one another. There is no such thing as exclusively private sin that doesn't affect anyone else. Instead, as Christians we realize our sins always affect one another and need to be forgiven through the ministry of the church, God's family of which we are a part.

When Pope Benedict was in our country six years ago he explained: "To a great extent, the renewal of the Church in the United States is tied to the renewal of the practice of the Sacrament of Penance."

For that reason, the most important conversations in the world don't take place at the White House in Washington or on 5th Avenue in New York. They are heard in the confessional in the back of every Catholic Church. A trip to confession, especially if you haven't been in a while, is the surest path to renewal in the spiritual life and for the church in our country.

If you have a question for Fr. Connors about the Catholic Faith or a matter of Church Teaching, please email him at associatepastor@olmparish.org

All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit you freed your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life. Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their Helper and Guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
