Dear Parishioners:

We welcomed our OLM students, staff and faculty back this past Wednesday. The First Day of School was a great beginning of the new academic year complete with great excitement and energy. What a blessing our school is for our parish and community.

In a recent column on Catholic Education Cardinal Donald Wuerl, the Archbishop of Washington, observed that "the children attending Catholic schools along city streets, suburban neighborhoods and in the rural countryside come from all backgrounds, and through challenging academic programs rooted in Catholic values learn to be the future leaders of our church, our communities, our nation and our world."

This Friday at 9:00AM we formally mark the opening of the school year with a Mass of the Holy Spirit. I invite all parishioners to join with our students, faculty, staff and school families as we call upon the Holy Spirit to guide us during the school year. What a great way to celebrate our Catholic Faith as it is lived out and taught in our school on a daily basis. If you cannot attend the Mass, then please remember to pray for our students, staff and faculty.

This weekend we kick-off the new 5:00PM Sunday Evening Mass at OLM. This addition of a fifth Mass to our weekend schedule should afford those at OLM and in the area yet another opportunity to get to Sunday

Mass. In the past OLM parishioners who sought an evening Mass on Sundays would often attend the 5:30PM Sunday Mass at nearby St. Francis de Sales Church in North Kingstown. However, Fr. Procaccini, the new pastor at St. Francis, recently announced changes in their Weekend Mass schedule which includes eliminating the 5:30PM Mass.

So I urge you to invite your friends and neighbors to join us at Mass on Sundays. Perhaps you might make a special effort to invite someone who has fallen away from the Church or routinely skips Mass to come join us. Pope Francis reminds us: "Where does Jesus send us? There are no borders, no limits: he sends us to everyone. The Gospel is for everyone, not just for some. It is not only for those who seem closer to us, more receptive, more welcoming. It is for everyone. Do not be afraid to go and to bring Christ into every area of life, to the fringes of society, even to those who seem farthest away, most indifferent. The Lord seeks all, he wants everyone to feel the warmth of his mercy and his love."

Next weekend we welcome to OLM, Father Nicholas Smith who will be preaching at all Masses. Father Smith is one of our Senior Priests who served many years as Chaplain at St. Joseph's Hospital, Pastor at St. Francis de Sales in North Kingstown and later at St. Francis of Assisi in South Kingstown. He comes to us next weekend to speaking about the Senior Priests' Collection which is scheduled for the weekend of September 14th and 15th. This important collection helps fund the pension fund for Senior Priests in Providence. I'm sure you will give him your usual warm Our Lady of Mercy welcome!

This Monday we mark the "unofficial" end of summer as the nation celebrates Labor Day. Each year the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops issues a Labor Day Statement. This year they write: "Labor Day is an opportunity to take stock of the ways workers are honored and respected. Unfortunately, millions of workers today are denied this honor and respect as a result of unemployment, underemployment, unjust wages, wage theft, abuse, and exploitation."

As we celebrate Labor Day with picnics, golfing, boating or at the beach, let us take time to pray for the gift of work that gives each us human dignity. May we also remember all those who are unemployed and seeking work. Labor Day is a day to rest from work but also a day to remember in prayer workers and rejoice in the dignity that work bestows upon us.

Have a great week. Keep praying for our students returning to school. Let's hope we have a crowd at Sunday Mass at 5PM! Enjoy the holiday and a very Happy Labor Day! God Bless.

Father Healey

The Catechism Corner

It's the end of a very long day at work. Our desk is no more cleared off than it was this morning. The voice mail message light is still lit even though we've been on the phone all day. And to top it all off, the coffee we're drinking has been sitting on the burner since lunch time and it's only Monday!! All of a sudden, the simple thought crosses our mind, "IS THIS REALLY WORTH IT??" Many times the frustration of our labors can pile up beyond our ability to handle them. The grind of the work week becomes all too apparent and we wonder if remaining at our job will only increase our mental illness bills in the future. On days like this whether we are homemakers, insurance salesmen, teachers, real estate agents or even secretaries at the local Parish, we need to remember the purpose of work--the reason why we need to labor so hard. "Human work proceeds directly from persons created in the image of God and called to prolong the work of creation by subduing the earth, both with and for one another...Work honors the Creator's gifts and talents received from him." In other words, there is something "divine" about the work that we do--the laundry, the legal brief, and the lawn can all be transformed into holy actions as we begin to see them in their proper light. Work, in truth, "can also be redemptive. By enduring the hardship of work in union with Jesus, the carpenter of Nazareth and the one crucified on Calvary, man collaborates in a certain fashion with the Son of God in his redemptive work." Now, that's a more exalted view of work than any labor union could come up with!! For the believer, the "economic life is not meant solely to multiply goods produced and increase profit or power; it is ordered first of all to the service of persons, of the whole man, and of the entire human community." So, "IS THIS REALLY WORTH IT??" Yes, it is— especially as we begin to see it completely and intimately bound up with our salvation and the salvation of those around us— especially our families. Work in all of its potentiality "can be a means of sanctification and a way of animating earthly realities with the Spirit of Christ." What good Catholic worker would not want to do that?? This Labor Day as we take a rest from our work, let us thank the Lord for the great gift of serving Him and His Kingdom in whatever work or labor we find ourselves and still if none of the above are inspirational enough to go to work tomorrow, just remember what Saint Paul told the Thessalonians, "If anyone will not work, let him not eat" (II Thess 3:10). See you at the doughnut cart!! But, before then, check it out in the Catechism of the Catholic Church #2426-2428.

"Every economic and political theory or action must set about providing each inhabitant of the planet with the minimum wherewithal to live in dignity and freedom, with the possibility of supporting a family, educating children, praising God and developing one's own human potential. This is the main thing; in the absence of such a vision, all economic activity is meaningless."—Pope Francis
