Dear Parishioners:

We had a terrific day for the OLM Parish Picnic last Sunday. The weather was beautiful and a large gathering of parishioners enjoyed a good time and good food. Even the Pope stopped by for a few photographs and to watch the Pat's Game. Fr. Connors rode his unicycle, the kids enjoyed the pony rides and games, and it was truly a great beginning to the Week of Mercy.

Fr. Connors and over 400 pilgrims from Providence including 20 OLM parishioners departed for Philadelphia for the World Meeting of Families on Thursday. At 4pm this afternoon they are attending the huge outdoor Papal Mass which is expected to draw over a million people. It is the last event of a weekend of festivities with the Pope and thousands of Catholic families. The World Meeting of Families is held every three years and is the world's largest Catholic gathering of families.

This past week we celebrated as a Parish Family with a Week of Mercy. I am grateful to the many folks who helped to make this a special time for our parish a great success. Many parishioners volunteered to help with the Parish Picnic. I am grateful to all those who helped with the set up and clean up, baked goodies for the dessert table, and those who warmly greeted all those attending the picnic.

In particular we are grateful to Dave Belanger and Eric Anderson from our OLM

Maintenance Crew, Mrs. Jaime Pedro, President of the OLM School PTG and the parent volunteers, the OLM Knight of Columbus who cooked all afternoon, members of the OLM Confirmation Class and Youth Group who helped organize the games for kids.

We wish to publicly thank a few people who were very generous with donations. We thank the Galleshaw and Fogue Families from Wright's Chicken Farm for generously donating the use of their large tent for the picnic. We also thank OLM Parishioner Bob Nowak of RI Novelty who generously donated all the great prizes for the children's games. And we thank OLM Parishioner Tony Maddalone for providing his excellent live music and terrific singing at the picnic. Also, we thank OLM Parishioners Stefan and Milan Toljan of Big Foot Sound for their terrific DJ sounds last Sunday at the picnic.

On Tuesday night we had the wonderful Performance of Mercy. Our Choirs under the direction of Henri St. Louis and Deirdre Donovan, provided inspirational sound and beautiful music in honor of Our Lady of Mercy. We are grateful for the sharing of their many talents in service to God, and OLM Parish.

On Wednesday our Work of Mercy was to make sandwiches for the homeless residents at Emmanuel House. We also provided new socks for those homeless. I thank all who helped us make so many sandwiches and all those who donated socks. It was a great witness of mercy in action.

Finally we thank Monsignor Jay Darcy for offering the homily at our Feast Day Mass on Thursday. The Feast Day Mass is the pinnacle of our celebration of the Week of Mercy and I thank all those who helped with it. Our Lady of Mercy, pray for us!

Next week our fine OLM Religious Education Program commences as we begin another year of faith formation for our parish children. Our volunteer RE teachers who give so much of their time and talent to serving the parish are to be commissioned at the 9am Mass next Sunday. Please keep them in your prayers and pray for all those in our RE Program.

We officially welcome our new Franciscan Apostolic Sisters to OLM Parish at the 10:30am Mass next Sunday. Sister Emma and Sister Lourdes arrive at OLM this week to begin their ministry among us. Keep them in your prayers and be sure to give them a warm welcome. They are truly excited to part of our parish family.

This week we once again take up our very important OLM Annual Collection. I am grateful for your tremendous support of this critical collection over the years. It allows us to maintain the parish plant and fund necessary projects. Thanks again for your support. Be well. Do Good. Go Pats. God Bless.

Father Healey

Dear Fr. Connors: What is the origin of the First Friday Devotions? Why do we have an additional Mass and Eucharistic Adoration on that day?

First Friday devotions have their origin in the 17th century in France. There our Lord appeared to a nun named Margaret Mary Alacoque who is now a saint of the Church. At that time an overly rigid view of the moral life was prominent in many quarters of France. People would rarely receive Holy Communion having an impoverished view of God's mercy.

The Lord asked St. Margaret Mary to promote devotion to His Sacred Heart. The statue in our Church and in so many homes and churches was prompted by this increase in devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the 17th century.

One way to promote devotion to the Sacred Heart—that is, the loving and tender and merciful heart of the Lord—is the First Friday Devotion. This devotion was the practice to receive Holy Communion (most often preceded by the receiving the Sacrament of Penance) for nine consecutive First Fridays. The Lord promised St. Margaret Mary that no one who practiced this devotion would die without recourse to the Sacraments.

It is a strong custom in the Church then to offer additional Masses on First Fridays. In has long been the custom of offering a First Friday Mass for the school children here at Our Lady of Mercy.

In addition, we offer exposition of the Blessed Sacrament each First Friday. This devotion is to pray before the Lord in the Eucharist. The Lord is placed in a monstrance, a large gold container where the Eucharist can be seen. Many people come into the Church during the day to pray before Jesus exposed in the Eucharist. At the conclusion of this time of prayer the priest or deacon blesses those assembling with the Eucharist. This is called Benediction.

While exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction can be offered at any time, First Fridays are an especially appropriate time for this devotion.
