Dear Parishioners:

The first day of autumn is not until September 23rd, but for all practical purposes summer ends on Labor Day! As summer ends we once again ask, where did it go? It went so quickly and seems to go quicker the older I get!

Speaking of getting older, next week Fr. Frank O'Hara, one of our senior priest, will be preaching at all the weekend Masses. Fr. O'Hara will be here to speak on behalf of the Senior Priest Retirement Collection. Last year Fr. Nick Smith so powerfully preached about Priest Retirement that the collection raised nearly $17,000 here at OLM! Once again the Diocese has asked us to let a Senior Priest preach on the vital need of the collection which is scheduled for the weekend of September 20 and 21st.

The many senior priests of the Diocese of Providence are self-supporting. Diocesan priests live independently in retirement, no longer relying upon the support of a parish. Since they are paid a modest wage during their years in active ministry, priests receive a minimal Social Security benefit. In 1966, the Diocese established the Senior Priest Retirement Fund in an effort to help retired priests meet the basic needs of food, housing, transportation and medical care.

There are currently 95 senior priests in the diocese. Often retiring between ages 70-75, many continue to serve after more than forty years of active ministry. Still others require assisted living, or nursing home care.

The Church of Providence faces an important challenge today in supporting this fund. As with other retirement benefit programs—such as Social Security—the fund is burdened by increasing current and projected costs that exceed its income. Priests are living longer, more active lives. A large percentage of priests in the diocese are nearing retirement age. The rate of those drawing on the fund is projected to only increase in the foreseeable future: in fifteen years some 50 percent of our priests presently active in ministry will be eligible for retirement. Fewer active priests also impacts fund revenues since one revenue source is a premium (from parish assessments) that is based on current active priests.

Your generosity answers that challenge and says thanks to the many faithful priests who have served our Church. The Annual Retirement Fund Collection is a major support for our retired priests. With a thoughtful, generous contribution you can help the Senior Priest Retirement Fund meet its obligations to those who depend on it for today and tomorrow. It's also our way of thanking them for their many years of faithful service.

Fr. O'Hara has been retired for several years and still is active helping out parishes around the state. In fact, Fr. Connors will be out covering Masses for Fr. O'Hara, while he is with us at OLM next Sunday, in Cranston and Warwick.

In full disclosure, both Fr. Connors and I stand to benefit from the Priests' Retirement Fund in the future. For me it will be in the year 2035 when I am eligible to retire and Fr. Connors is eligible to collect his pension in the year 2053! So when I am about 88 years old, the young Fr. Connors can join me at the Senior Priest Residence on Mount Pleasant Avenue!! But we are only able to retire if we have a strong retirement fund for retired priests, so your generous support is deeply appreciated by all the priests of Providence, young and old!

I received a note from St. Patrick's Parish this week thanking all of you for your tremendous support of the Back-Pack Drive. Fr. James Ruggieri, Pastor of St. Patrick's in Providence, wrote that they were able to help over 50 families including one family of eight children and two with six children. They gave out 100 back-packs full of school supplies. Your generosity in supporting the needy of Smith Hill is appreciated. Fr. James writes: "On behalf of all our volunteers, staff and especially the happy children who walked through the door, thank you!"

I know you will give Fr. O'Hara a warm welcome to OLM next weekend. Have a great week! God Bless! Go Pats!

Father Healey

Dear Father Connors:
What is the difference between a feast and a memorial on the liturgical calendar?

Fully living the Christian life means living the liturgical calendar. Catholics don't simply acknowledge the secular calendar of national holidays and civic celebrations. Catholics live the liturgy—the daily worship of God according to the seasons of the year. Principally that means Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter but it also includes feasts and celebrations throughout the year.

We generally use the word feast to describe any special day on the liturgical calendar. This isn't the most precise use of the term, however, since a feast has a very specific meaning. However the word feast is often used as a general term, regardless of whether or not we are celebrating a solemnity, feast or memorial.

Solemnities are the highest liturgical celebration on the calendar. They include solemnities of precept—that is, holy days of obligations—like the Immaculate Conception or the Assumption. Solemnities also include the “feast day” of St. Joseph on March 19th or the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart after Pentecost. On a solemnity both the Gloria and the Creed are recited at Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours—the Divine Office prayed by priests and religious—is of greater solemnity.

Feasts of the liturgical calendar includes those of apostles or the archangels. The Gloria, but not the Creed, is said at Mass on those days.

Memorials are those of saints that are either obligatory, that is, the Mass for the day must be celebrated for that saint or optional memorials when it is the decision of the priest to celebrate the Mass for that saint, with prayers proper to that saint, on a particular day.

Knowing the different feast days and celebrations throughout the year helps to let our lives revolve more and more around the worship of God. Each day is not simply just like the next. Living the liturgical calendar inserts one more deeply into the life of the Church.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
