We must

 Purgatory with our prayers.
-St. Padre Pio

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend we mark Veterans Day, a national holiday that originated as “Armistice Day” on November 11, 1919, the first anniversary of the end of World War I. Congress passed a resolution in 1926 for an annual observance, and November 11th became a national holiday beginning in 1938.

Unlike Memorial Day, Veterans Day pays tribute to all American veterans—living or dead—but especially gives thanks to living veterans who served their country honorably during war or peacetime.

Here at OLM we mark Veterans Day with Holy Mass on Monday at 8:30am. This Mass is offered for all veterans, living and deceased, in thanksgiving for their sacrifice and service to our nation and our freedom.

That includes, especially, the freedom to practice our faith. This freedom does not come without cost. So we pray with gratitude for all veterans and those men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve our freedom.

We owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to those killed in the line of duty, those still suffering from the effects of their wounds from serving the nation’s call, and, of course, all those who have retired from active duty. Let us remember those who have sacrificed so much to serve our nation in our prayers and with gratitude on Veterans Day and always.

Please be sure to join us on Veterans Day for Mass. There is no better way to pray in thanksgiving for our veterans. Following the Mass the Annual Veterans Day Parade commences in East Greenwich.

I hope you get a chance to attend and thank the many veterans who march in it. Veterans Day is a special day to remember, to give thanks, to pray, and to salute those who serve and have served our nation. As we honor our noble veterans, recall the words of President Ronald W. Reagan: “Some people spend an entire lifetime wondering if they made a difference in the world. But veterans don't have that problem.”

This weekend at OLM, along with parishes across the nation, we have a unique opportunity to support Catholic ministry in the U.S. military and Veterans Affairs (VA) Medical Centers by giving to a first-ever, special collection at Sunday Mass in support of the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS).

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) approved this national special collection last year and it is to be taken up once every three years beginning this year. The collection is timed to coincide with Veterans Day each year.

The Archdiocese of Military Services was established by St. Pope John Paul II in 1985. It serves millions of Catholics across the globe providing Catholic priests who serve as chaplains in the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard, the service academies and the VA.

There are some 1.8 million American Catholics worldwide who depend on over 1,000 Military Service priests for their spiritual care, the celebration of the sacraments, and their regular practice of the faith. The Military Archdiocese receives no funding from the government, and all weekly collections at U.S. military chapels must be distributed according to military funding rules, so private donations are the sole means of survival for the archdiocese. I know you will be generous in supporting our military chaplains and the many active duty Catholics who serve across the globe. There is no envelope for this collection, so simply mark your check AMS. In the name of our chaplains and the military personnel they serve, I offer my profound thanks for your support.

The Our Faith, Our Future Capital Campaign is off to a great start as over $400,000 has been pledged toward our $2 Million goal. This campaign is vital to advancing the good work of our parish and providing for the future of our faith here in East Greenwich.

We recall the sacrifice of veterans this weekend, let us also recall the generations of faithful parishioners who sacrificed to make OLM the tremendous family of faith She is today. With this in mind, we ask every parishioner to pray for the campaign and consider what sacrifice they are willing to make for Our Faith and Our Future.

Happy Veterans Day! Be well. Do good. God Bless America! Oremus pro invicem!

What are the Four Last Things?

During the month of November we pray more fervently for the souls in purgatory to help them get ready for heaven. Hence it is an appropriate month to explain the Four Last Things. In Catholic theology the Four Last Things refers to Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell. We study these realities under the branch of theology known as Eschatology. Our spiritual lives should include regular meditation on these realities. In any journey, it's important to remember your destiny to know that you are going the right way. When we consider the most important parts of our lives, at the top of that list, should be the Four Last Things. What happens to our immortal souls at death is of utmost importance.

Every human being possesses an immortal soul and a mortal body. Hence every human being will experience death. No one gets out of this life alive. Prior to our bodily deaths, we are open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace offered through Christ. Once we die, our lives are eternally destined for either heaven or hell. Particular judgment on a soul happens immediately after death. God judges a soul based on his or her faith and works. As the Catechism states, "Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven-through purification or immediately, or immediate and everlasting damnation." The final judgment occurs at the end of time. This is not a second chance for souls. Instead God brings to fulfillment His kingdom.

Those who die in God's grace (in a state of grace), having chosen Him and heaven, begin their journey to heaven. If the person has attachments to sin or imperfections, these are removed in purgatory. Heaven is the blessed communion with God and all who are in Christ. This is beyond all understanding and description, albeit we get glimpses of it in the goodness and truth we find here on earth.

We cannot be united with God unless we freely choose to love him. Grave sin (mortal sin) is the manifestation of freely choosing not to love God and neighbor. To die in mortal sin without repenting and accepting God's merciful love means remaining separated from Him and neighbor for all eternity. We call this state "hell." A person in hell freely chooses it. God predestines no one to go to hell.

Coping with Grief during the Holidays

The Office of Life and Family will offer a special workshop, "Coping with Grief during the Holidays," which will be held at Our Lady of Loreto Church, 346 Waterman Ave., on Monday, Nov. 18, 6:30 – 8 p.m., at the rectory (side door, downstairs). Coping with grief during the holidays can be a time of great sorrow and apprehension. Many struggle with pain, loss, and feelings of emptiness, as well as countless other difficult thoughts and emotions. This workshop is designed to help those who are grieving to begin to heal and establish healthy ways to cope during the holidays with meaning, love and purpose, all within the light of the Catholic faith. This workshop is free and for adults only. Pre-registration is required. Please contact: Peter A Magnotta, LICSW at 421-7833, ext. 217, or email at Pmagnotta@dioceseofprovidence.org
