Dear Parishioners:

The Wednesday before Thanksgiving, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, named the Most Reverend Richard G. Henning, the Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, New York, as the Co-Adjutor Bishop of Providence. The difference between a coadjutor bishop and an auxiliary bishop is the coadjutor bishop enjoys the right to assume leadership of the diocese when the current Bishop resigns his office to retire.

So Bishop Henning is to become the Bishop of Providence when he succeeds Bishop Tobin. Bishop Tobin will turn 75 years old on April 1, 2023, and must send a letter of resignation to the Pope. When Pope Francis accepts the letter is not yet known. Bishop Henning has a stellar reputation among the priests and people of the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

He is known to be a very kind and pastoral priest and Bishop, as well as very hard-working and highly intelligent. Bishop Henning holds a Doctorate in Theology and speaks fluent Spanish and Italian.

In his priestly ministry, he has served as a parish priest, a seminary professor, and a rector and worked extensively with Hispanic immigrants in Long Island. The Bishop will be formally received into the Diocese of Providence on January 26, 2023, at a Mass of Reception at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul in Providence. Please pray for him as he prepares to begin his ministry among us.

On the same day, the Holy Father, Pope Francis, accepted Bishop Evans' letter of resignation, which he sent on his 75th Birthday on September 3, 2022. We thank Bishop Evans for his 49 years of priestly ministry and 13 years as our Auxiliary Bishop. We pray for his health and happiness during his well-deserved retirement. Ad multos annos!

Also, I hope you noticed the new statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been placed in Mercy Park. We are very grateful to the Ponte Family, who generously donated the beautiful statue. It was hand carved by a well-known Mexican sculptor of Catholic statuary. The beautiful statue stands over 5 feet tall and weighs nearly 900 pounds. The stand the statue rests upon weighs almost 400 pounds and is 3 feet tall.

We are grateful to the former OLM Altar Server, now a Landscape Architect, Aleksus Jagminas, and his partner, Robbie Paulsen, of R.K. Industries for their work placing the statue in Mercy Park.

We celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary this Thursday. It is a holy day of obligation. There is a Mass on Wednesday at 5:00pm and also Masses on the holy day at 7:30am, 9:00am, and 7:00pm. Plenty of opportunity to get to Mass for the holy day.

Through the centuries, the Church has become ever more aware that Mary, "full of grace" through God, was redeemed from the moment of her conception. That is what the dogma of the Immaculate Conception confesses, as Pope Pius IX proclaimed in 1854:

"The most Blessed Virgin

Mary was, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Savior of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin."

The dogma of the Immaculate Conception places Our Lady before us as an example of what God can do and what we can do if, like Mary, we put ourselves in God's hands and at God's service, always open to what God asks and always seeking to fulfill God's will.

The dogma also encourages us to do our best to remain free from sin. Although we are all born with original sin and, through the grace of Baptism, are freed from sin, in the course of our life, because of human weakness, we fail and sin. The feast of the Immaculate Conception reminds us that if we cooperate with God's grace, as did the Blessed Virgin Mary, we can lead a life as free from sin as is humanly possible.

I hope your Advent days are prayerful as we continue to prepare for the coming of Christ. Take some time for prayer and reflection in these busy days before Christmas. Stop by the Church and visit with our Lord. He's waiting for you! Pray and practice patience in this season of joyful anticipation. Get to Confession and receive his mercy, love, and forgiveness. It's Advent, prepare the way and make straight his paths!

Be well. Stay safe. Do good. God Bless. Go Pats!

Father Healey

St. Nicholas Day – December 6

On December 6, the Church celebrates the feast of St. Nicholas. While many countries have traditions surrounding the day, for the German people, this day takes the place of prominence. As an elementary school student in Germany, I remember making little paper shoes to place outside the doors of our classroom to be filled with chocolate coins and clementines. St. Nicholas day was also the starting day for the incomparable Christmas markets. Yet, with all of the celebrations and traditions, St. Nicholas was not from Germany. He was the Bishop of Myra in modern-day Turkey in the fourth century. While he is known for his gift-giving, which all started so that a father did not have to sell his daughters, St. Nicholas's role at the Council of Nicaea speaks to him being more than just a gift-giver, but indeed a true defender of the faith. At the Council, the heresy of Arianism was proclaimed by the priest Arius, stating that the Son was not equal to the Father. St. Nicholas would listen to this, stand, and then go on to defend the truth that we profess in the Nicene Creed that the Father and the Son are equal. St. Nicholas' willingness to stand and defend the truth should never be overlooked! The traditional German breakfast on St. Nicholas Day is Pfannkuchen: German Pancakes

Ingredients:

- Makes one large pancake which will serve 2
- 4 Egg Yolks - Beaten
- 5 Egg Whites – Beaten Stiff
- 2 Tablespoons Cornstarch
- ¼ Cup Warm Milk
- ¼ Warm Water
- ¾ Tablespoon Sugar
- Zest of 1 Orange
- 2 Tablespoons Butter

Directions:

Step 1: Preheat over to 400 degrees, then combine egg yolks, milk, water, salt, sugar, and orange zest in a bowl and stir until smooth. Step 2: Gently fold in beaten egg whites. Step 3: Melt butter in a heavy 10-inch skillet. Step 4: When the skillet is hot, pour in ALL of the batter and cook over medium-low heat for 5 minutes, partially covered, then move the skillet to the oven for 3 more minutes. Step 5: Serve immediately topped with powdered sugar and a squeeze of orange juice!

Immaculate Conception

“THE IMMACULATE Conception” is a title for Mary, the mother of Jesus. The expression means that Mary was conceived without sin. The conviction that Jesus was born of a virgin is a distinct belief, even though many Catholics erroneously think that the Immaculate Conception refers to Jesus.

Contributing to the confusion is the celebration of the Immaculate Conception during the season of Advent. While the faithful are preparing to honor the birth of Jesus, we commemorate the conception of Mary. The choice of December 8 for the Immaculate Conception does not directly relate to Advent; it corresponds more to the traditional date for the Feast of the Birth of Mary, September 8, which coincides with the dedication of a Jerusalem church in honor of the mother of Mary. The feast for the conception of Mary is backed up from that day nine months. In a similar way, we celebrate the Annunciation on March 25, nine months before the birth of Jesus.

Belief in the Immaculate Conception asserts that God preserved Mary from all sin from the moment of her conception, thus preparing a pure vessel for the Incarnation of the Son. This belief is not expressly contained in the Scriptures, but it enjoys a widespread following in the Church’s tradition. Although the Immaculate Conception of Mary has been affirmed since the earliest centuries of Christianity, it was not formally proclaimed a dogma of the Church until 1854. December 8 is now a holyday of obligation in the United States, which is placed under Mary’s patronage with this title.

When Mary is depicted as the Immaculate Conception, she is often shown wearing a crown of stars as the woman in Revelation 12 and standing on a snake, reversing the temptation of Eve. Mary, the Immaculate Conception, is the exalted Queen of Heaven who manifests God’s power over sin.
