 5:00PM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy Church

Dear Parishioners:

This week Bishop Tobin announced with great joy that as of January 28, the Grateful for God's Providence Diocesan Capital Campaign has raised over $51 Million. This diocesan campaign received nearly $20 million generated in Special Leadership Gifts and Bequests, with $7.1 million generated through a share from area parishes.

A total of $37,270,618 was pledged from 16,240 Catholic individual parish families. A total of 185 priests in the diocese pledged their support of $1,729,897 to the campaign. In offering his thanks and gratitude, Bishop Tobin also spoke of the campaign's effort to strengthen the diocesan Church and its parishes as the Diocese of Providence prepares to celebrate our 150th anniversary in two years

Of the campaign's goal, $30 million is earmarked to support the diocese. This includes: $8 million for an endowment for seminarian education; $8 million for an endowment to support retired priests; $5 million for an endowment to benefit Catholic school tuition assistance; $5 million to bolster the Catholic Charities and Social Services endowment and its operations and also $4 million to help pay for renovations to the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul.

We continue here at OLM to move toward our combined campaign goal of $2 Million. We have received close to $1.6 million in pledges and gifts from just 353 parish families. We are truly grateful to those parishioners who have made the sacrifice and been so generous in supporting this critical campaign. We continue to receive pledges and I am confident we can exceed our goal.

If you have not yet made your pledge to the campaign, I encourage you to please do so. The great success of the Diocesan campaign across the state is a sign of the vitality of our local Church and the commitment of many Catholics. Your support of this much needed effort to support our parish and local Church is also a sign of your commitment to Our Lady of Mercy Parish. So please consider making a pledge of $4,000 or more, payable over four years.

Over these many months I have been humbled by the great generosity of so many parishioners who were so supportive of the campaign. So many made sacrificial gifts because they are truly hopeful for our wonderful parish and are quite willing to generously support her future. However, to be truly successful we need every parish family to make a sacrifice and support the parish they call home. We cannot do it with just a third of the parish, so please make a pledge today!

The good news is that we will soon be receiving some of the campaign funds already collected. This past week we met with Mr. Mark Saccoccio of Saccoccio and Associates Architects, who is advising us about the many projects to be undertaken at OLM over the next four years.

Among the priorities are the replacing of the original boilers in the two convents and the Rectory. They are all over 50 years old, not too efficient, and usually break down on the coldest days of the year!

Also, the roofs on the two convents and the rectory are all over 30 years old and badly need replacing. You can see the shingles from the convent roofs falling off and ask Fr. Barrow about the leak in his bedroom, in the Rectory! These projects and all the others are very needed and the campaign will help finance them and secure our parish's future.

All the projects go out to bid as we follow the Diocesan protocols and guidelines for capital improvement projects. Mr. Saccoccio is working with Mr. Paul Anderson, OLM Facilities Director, and also with the Diocesan Building Commission and Facilities Director in securing the right contractors to help us with the projects.

I thank those who so willingly pledged their support and generous gifts to the Our Faith, Our Future Campaign. We also thank Joe and Carol Cavanagh and Michael and Brooke O'Connell for their tremendous leadership of the campaign.

I wish all our students and teachers a restful and healthy winter break this week. Enjoy it because Lent begins when you return! Please look at the Lenten schedule in the bulletin. Be well. Do Good! God Bless. Happy President's Day!

Will we be happy in heaven without a loved one?

Giving free will to creatures constitutes the greatest risk. Free will makes evil and separation from God and neighbor possible. When God gave us free will it meant that we could go right or wrong, since if a thing is free to be good it is also free to be bad. Yet he did this for a very important reason: only free will makes possible love, joy, and goodness. The happiness that God destines for his creatures is the happiness of being freely and voluntarily united to him and to each other. Otherwise we would simply be machines or computers following a set of programs. After all, the very definition of love means to freely will the good of the other.

While we can never be entirely certain about a soul's fate in the next life (excluding the saints of course), free will means that there exists the possibility that we may find ourselves in heaven without a friend, a parent, a spouse, or a child dear to us. Without such a person in heaven, does that mean heaven will be less enjoyable for us? Will we be at least somewhat unhappy in heaven knowing that our loved one has been eternally lost? Would not our joy in heaven be dampened or compromised by such knowledge? The answer, perhaps a difficult one to consider, is no. In heaven, even should none of our family or friends in this life freely choose to be with God, will be for those there, a place of complete joy, happiness and ecstasy. That is part of the risk of free will.

Those who freely deny the love and happiness of God will not blackmail the blessed who choose it. They will not be able to destroy or infect in others the happiness they reject for themselves. Hell can have no power to veto heaven's happiness. As C.S. Lewis writes in The Great Divorce: "The demand of the loveless and the self-imprisoned that they should be allowed to blackmail the universe: that till they consent to be happy (on their own terms) no one else shall taste joy: that theirs should be the final power; that Hell should be able to veto Heaven... Every disease that submits to a cure shall be cured: but we will not call blue yellow to please those who insist on still having jaundice."

As Christ tell us: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me." With these words he is actually protecting us from the tyranny and infection of those who freely choose to go against God and want to bring us with them.

Would anyone be tempted to say: "I would rather be with my loved ones for eternity, than in eternal bliss in heaven"? Yes, in fact many a romanticist has put the love of another person over and above the love for God. Unfortunately the only reason that love in this life is worth anything is because it is a reflection of God's love. Once divorced from him, our merely human love putrefies and corrupts. Separated from the source of love itself, any relationship between two people becomes possessive and manipulative.

OLD PALM BRANCH COLLECTION

Baskets will be readily available beginning the weekends of February 16 & 23, in order to collect old and blessed palm branches. Please deposit any palm branches in the proper baskets as they are to be burnt for use as ashes for Masses on Ash Wednesday.

Prepare For

GUIDELINES FOR

Lenten Fast and Abstinence Regulations

Abstinence from meat on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent (for those 14 and older) is required by Church law. Also, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting: those between the ages of 18 and 59 should eat less, meaning, take no solid food between meals and only one full meal that day. Serious health conditions excuse a person from these precepts. Parents are encouraged by the law of the Church to ensure that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated nonetheless in an authentic sense of penance.
